even the third circle of the seventy. I suspect, however that for many of us – lay, religious and ordained – the extent to which we become a more Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal Church will depend upon our individual willingness to progress toward the centre of our faith lives wherein lies the heart of Christ.

It's only once we've realised how precious it is – the treasure that we've been given (cf. Mt 13:44-45), that we discover that our faith is never fully realised until we share it with others. While the purpose of the seventy was to prepare the way for the Lord in the hearts of listeners, one of the ways we participate in Jesus' mission is when we draw others in and include them in the life of the Church; we do this so that they too can participate in the life of Christ and thus listen (synodal) to what the Lord is saying to them in their hearts. This is evangelisation and it's something that lies at and forms our deepest identity as Catholics. It is, in fact, the Church's very reason for existence (Evangelii Nuntiandi 14).

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

8 – 13 JULY 2019

14TH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR C

The Plenary Council Facilitation Team recently released the six National Themes for Discernment – themes which recurred throughout the 17,500 submissions from over 222,000 people during the listening and dialogue process. One of the themes is particularly close to my heart since it underpinned my Masters thesis: How is God calling the People of God to be a Christ-centred Church in Australia that is Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal? This theme is particularly relevant to Luke's Gospel account today: the sending out of seventy people by Jesus to every town and place where he himself intended to go to prepare the way before him (cf. Lk 1:76).

If there's one thing we can be certain of with the person of Jesus, he was a strategic thinker. Whilst he initially chose twelve disciples in whom he invested his time and energy, he invested a disproportionate amount time and energy in just three of them: Peter, James and John. Jesus knew that in order for his mission to succeed, he had to be prudent with his greatest resources: his time and his followers, and in this sense, his influence grew in concentric circles. We may also assume that the seventy were members of Jesus' next concentric circle of friends – after the three and the twelve; those people whom he knew and trusted with the propagation of his mission of evangelisation.

Today, thousands of faithful women and men dedicate their lives to the propagation of Jesus' mission. These people are employed by the Church in various roles, they volunteer their time in various roles, or they simply live out their Christianity in various ways. These people all appear within Jesus' concentric circles of influence at various distances from the centre. The Gospel offers a terrific opportunity for us to not only situate ourselves in one of the Jesus' concentric circles of influence but to examine what the Church in Australia would look like if we were more Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal.

Unlike Jesus choosing who and the extent to which he invested in people, we're constantly invited by Jesus into the centre circle to be his closest friends – no matter where we're at. We may choose to keep our distance, situating ourselves outside

MONDAY 8 JULY 2019

Monday of the Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

FIRST READING:

Genesis 28:10-22

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 90:1-4, 14-15

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High and abides in the shade of the Almighty says to the Lord: 'My refuge, my stronghold, my God in whom I trust!'

It is he who will free you from the snare of the fowler who seeks to destroy you;
he will conceal you with his pinions and under his wings you will find refuge

His love he set on me, so I will rescue him; protect him for he knows my name.

When he calls I shall answer: 'I am with you.'

I will save him in distress.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:18-26

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

TUESDAY 9 JULY 2019

Tuesday of the Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

FIRST READING:

Genesis 32:23-33

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 16:1-3, 6-8, 15

Lord, hear a cause that is just, pay heed to my cry.
Turn your ear to my prayer:
no deceit is on my lips.

From you may my judgement come forth.
Your eyes discern the truth.
You search my heart, you visit me by night.
You test me and you find in me no wrong.

I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God.
Turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Display your great love, you whose right hand saves your friends from those who rebel against them.

Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
In my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 9:32-38

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Come to me, all who labour and are burdened,
and I will refresh you, says the Lord.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

The idea of Pastoral Councils was first recommended in Vatican II's "Decree on the Pastoral Office of Bishops". At the parish level they assist the parish priest by working collaboratively with him to investigate some pastoral needs of the parish, reflect on them and recommend particular conclusions.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020: National Theme for Discernment #3 How is God calling us to be a Christ- centred Church that is Prayerful and Eucharistic?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who shared how deeply they treasured the Eucharist and the sacramental and liturgical life of the Church.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail Faith for all defects supplying Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing while eternal ages run; Equal praise to him confessing who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

GOD WITH HIDDEN MAJESTY

(Gather Aust. 388)

God with hidden majesty, lies in presence here,
I with deep devotion my true God revere:
Whom this outward shape and form secretly contains,
Christ in his divinity manhood still retains.

All my other senses, cannot now perceive,
But my hearing, taught by faith, always will believe:
I accept whatever God the Son has said:
Those who hear the word of God, by the truth are fed.

Blest reminder of the death suffered for the world,
Sacrament of living bread, health to every mind,
Let my soul approach you, live within your grace,
Let me taste the perfect joys time shall not efface.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper you prayed to the Father that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit upon all who bear your name and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

Wednesday of the Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving
justice.

FIRST READING:

Genesis 41:55-57; 42:5-7, 17-24

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 32:2-3, 10-11, 18-19

Give thanks to the Lord upon the harp, with a ten-stringed lute sing him songs.
O sing him a song that is new,
play loudly, with all your skill.

He frustrates the designs of the nations,
he defeats the plans of the peoples.
His own designs shall stand for ever,
the plans of his heart from age to age.

The Lord looks on those who revere him,
on those who hope in his love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near:
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:1-7

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

THURSDAY 11 JULY 2019

St Benedict

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

There was a man of venerable life,
Benedict, blessed by grace and by name, who, leaving home and patrimony and desiring to please God alone, sought out the habit of holy living.

FIRST READING:

Genesis 44:18-21, 23-29; 45:1-5

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 104:16-21

The Lord called down a famine on the land;
he broke the staff that supported them.
He had sent a man before them,
Joseph, sold as a slave.

His feet were put in chains,
his neck was bound with iron, until what he said came to pass and the Lord's word proved him true.

Then the king sent and released him;
the ruler of the peoples set him free, making him master of his house and ruler of all he possessed.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near:
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:7-15

COMMUNION ANTIPHON:

This is the steward, faithful and prudent, whom the Lord set over his household to give them their allowance of food at the proper time.

FRIDAY 12 JULY 2019

Friday of the Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.

Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving
justice.

FIRST READING:

Genesis 46:1-7, 28-30

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 36:3-4, 18-19, 27-28, 39-40

If you trust in the Lord and do good, then you will live in the land and be secure.

If you find your delight in the Lord,
he will grant your heart's desire.

He protects the lives of the upright, their heritage will last for ever.
They shall not be put to shame in evil days,
in time of famine their food shall not fail.

Then turn away from evil and do good and you shall have a home for ever;
for the Lord loves justice and will never forsake his friends.

The salvation of the just comes from the Lord,
their stronghold in time of distress.
The Lord helps them and delivers them and saves them: for their refuge is in him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

When the Spirit of truth comes, he will teach you all truth and bring to your mind

*At our Masses on Friday we have a collection to allow weekday parishioners to support the Cathedral.
Thank you for your contribution.*

SATURDAY 13 JULY 2019

Saturday of the Fourteenth Week in Ordinary Time

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII 486

FIRST READING:

Genesis 49:29-33; 50:15-26

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 104:1-4, 6-7

Give thanks to the Lord, tell his name, make known his deeds among the peoples.

O sing to him, sing his praise;
tell all his wonderful works!

Be proud of his holy name,
let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice.
Consider the Lord and his strength;
constantly seek his face.

O children of Abraham, his servant,
O sons of the Jacob he chose.
He, the Lord, is our God:
his judgements prevail in all the earth.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you, for the Spirit of God rests upon you.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 10:24-33

RECESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII 416

SATURDAY MORNING

Marian Prayer

To Our Lady of the Resurrection

Mary,
at the resurrection of your divine Son, God's anointed One,
your heart was filled with joy beyond all telling and your faith was wonderfully exalted.
For it was in faith
that you conceived Jesus, and it was in faith
that you awaited his resurrection, the strongest proof of his divinity.
In the strength of faith
you waited for that day of light and life when the night of death would be ended, the whole world would exult, and the infant church would tremble with joy
at seeing again her immortal Lord.
You knew at that first Easter that his divine life was the model for our lives
the grace of living for God.
Enable me to rise with Jesus spiritually and live a life free from sin.
Help me to do God's will and to be patient in suffering.
Enrich my soul with sanctifying grace through sacraments, prayer, and good works.
And let the life of Jesus grow in me,
so that he may live in me.
Amen
