Readings for today: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6; 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5; Matthew 22:15-21

Dear friends,

Today is World Mission Day. This year's Catholic Mission Church Appeal highlights the important work of the Church in Cambodia, which aims to reach out to those who have been affected by disability, and give them hope and support to live a fulfilling life.

The theme of the appeal comes from Nehemiah 8:10: "For the joy of the Lord is your strength". It reminds us that it is our faith in God that builds us and strengthens us, especially in times of need or hardship.

This appeal shares the story of Chen, a landmine survivor who lost both his legs when he was 16 years old. Chen has been given the care and opportunity to turn this tragic event into a positive outcome through the support of the Arrupe Centre in the Apostolic Prefecture of Battambang in north-western Cambodia.

Established by Bishop Enrique 'Kike' Figaredo Alvargonzalez in 2001, the Arrupe Centre has evolved over the past twenty years from a short-term rehabilitation centre to a full-time home for children with disability, whether it be from landmine accidents or from illnesses such as polio. As Bishop Kike says, "We are here for the common good; to be a more inclusive society and to bring also the joy of life everywhere ... we look with a positive vision and, I would say, with hope and joy and happiness". The Arrupe Centre strives to show the love of God through caring for and empowering those in need.

Today, landmine accidents are still prevalent in Cambodia, a cruel reminder of the country's troubled past, even for those who were not yet born during the tumultuous years of the Khmer Rouge regime and civil conflicts that followed.

The Arrupe Centre urgently needs support to continue providing young people like Chen with opportunities so they can live a full and dignified life. The children and young people who benefit so greatly from programs like this rely on the support you can provide today. Please consider how you can support the Catholic Mission Appeal and programs like the Arrupe Centre in Cambodia. Fr. Anthony

Mass Registration

The preferred way to register for Mass is on-line via the Cathedral website:

<https://www.cathedralofststephen.org.au/mass--reconciliation-times.html>. If you do not have access to register on-line, please telephone the Cathedral Office before 12noon on Friday. For administration purposes, registration closes at lunchtime on Friday.

When registering for Mass, please note the following:

- Do not register for more than one Sunday Mass. Please register only for the Mass you will attend. Registering for more than one Mass prevents other people from attending.
- We require the details for each individual person attending Mass, therefore, if you are registering for more than one person, please put all names in the registration. Multiple entries in the same name will be deleted, leaving only one entry.
- We understand that you may register for a Mass and then, on the day, not be able to attend, however please do not register on the off chance that you may attend.

Change to the Registration Process for Mass

We are in the process of exploring new ways to make registration for all Masses more streamlined and to avoid the regular occurrence of people registering for Mass and not honouring their registration with attendance, (or registering for two Sunday Masses).

After careful consideration, it has been decided that QR code system will not make registration or entering the church for Mass any smoother, therefore we will not proceed with this option. We are however still looking at other options.

Whatever system we decide on, there are sure to be teething problems however in the long term, and especially for Christmas Masses, we would like a system that will be easier for everyone. Your patience and cooperation is, as always, very much appreciated.

The following guidelines remain in place:

- If you are feeling unwell, please stay home and participate in Mass on-line via the Cathedral website;
- Physical distancing of 1.5m, whilst standing in the queue to check-in, during Mass and whilst in the Communion procession, is essential;
- Hand hygiene (sanitising your hands before entering the church and when exiting);
- Respiratory hygiene (coughing/sneezing into elbow);
- The number of people in our churches at any one time must be strictly adhered to.

Thank you for your co-operation.

Organ Maintenance

The Cathedral remains closed from approx. 2.00pm each afternoon Monday to Friday for organ maintenance.

Ways to financially support your parish

- Direct debit via the online payment system on the Cathedral's website:

<https://www.bpoint.com.au/pay/ststephencathedralbrisbane>

- The "Tap & Go" facility at the door of the church;
- Place your donation in the collection bags during or after Mass;
- The Parish Giving app
Hover the camera on your smart phone over the QR code and tap on the link to the Parish Giving facility.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 129

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

I call upon you, Lord,
for you will answer me.
I pray that you will hear my words;
Give ear, Lord, to my plea.

My Saviour, keep me as
the apple of your eye;
Beneath the shadow of your wings
In safety let me lie.

I plead my innocence;
Give heed, Lord, to my cry,
And listen to my prayer, which comes
From lips that do not lie.

Lord, vindicate me soon,
That you may see the right;
I pray you, try and weigh my heart,
And search my soul at night.

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 564

O breathe on me, O breath of God,
Fill me with life anew
That I may love the things you love,
And do what you would do.

O breathe on me, O breath of God,
Until my heart is pure;
Until my will is one with yours,
To do and to endure.

O breathe on me, O breath of God,
My will to yours incline,
Until this earthly part of me
Glow with your fire divine.

O breathe on me, O breath of God,
So shall I never die,
But live with you the perfect life
Of your eternity.

(Translation) OFFERTORY MOTET, 12pm Mass

*Meditabor in mandatis tuis,

et levabo manus meas ad
mandata tua, quae dilexi.*

I will meditate on your commandments, which I have loved exceedingly:
and I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I have loved.

Music: Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525-1594)

Antiphon:

*In faith and hope and love
with joyful trust we move towards our Father's home above.*

1. Christ, our star, our map, our road
To the Father's high abode.
2. Christ, our bread along the way;
Christ, our rescue when we stray.
3. Christ, our shelter, Christ our friend,
Our beginning and our end.
4. Christ, our hope and our reward;
Our redeemer and our Lord.

Godhead here in hiding whom I do adore
Masked by these bare shadows, shape and nothing more.
See, Lord, at thy service low lies here a heart
Lost, all lost in wonder at the God thou art.

Seeing, touching, tasting are in thee deceived;
How says trusty hearing? that shall be believed;
What God's Son has told me, take for truth I do;
Truth himself speaks truly or there's nothing true.

On the cross thy godhead made no sign to men;
Here thy very manhood steals from human ken:
Both are my confession, both are my belief,
And I pray the prayer of the dying thief.

I am not like Thomas, wounds I cannot see,
But can plainly call thee Lord and God as he;
This faith each day deeper be my holding of,
Daily make me harder hope and dearer love.

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
be all else but naught to me, save that thou art--
be thou my best thought by day or by night,
both waking or sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word;
be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord;
bethou my great Father, thy child let me be;
be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

Be thou my breastplate, my sword for my fight;
be thou my whole armour, be thou my delight,
be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my high tow'r:
O raise thou me heav'n-ward, great Pow'r of my pow'r.
