THE CATHEDRAL OF ST STEPHEN

Embracing Villa Maria and St Patrick's Fortitude Valley

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

13 – 18 JANUARY 2020
1ST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

In a land so desperately in need of rain, today we celebrate the power of water to give us life. These past weeks have given us image after image of the dry land exploding into fire, smoke and ash and leaving behind its cindered remains. Fire is not new to our summers or our landscape, but the size and reach of this summer's fires is, as we have heard often, "unprecedented". Fire is threatening us in new and destructive ways.

In Australia, we are not used to seeing summer beaches become evacuation zones, or clear summer skies choked with smoke, or long queues at village supermarkets, or navy ships moored in otherwise calm harbours. This summer feels different and our usual January distractions of cricket, tennis and BBQs seem less important. Perhaps this summer is a tipping-point, at least in our consciousness and relationship with the natural environment.

It is interesting to note that the baptism of Jesus took place outdoors, and not in a cute little chapel. It is harder to see the heavens thrown open with a roof over your head.

The baptism of Jesus, although not a baptism of initiation as we understand it, is the prototype for all Christian baptisms. The baptism that John was offering was not initiation but spiritual renewal and bodily cleansing, and hence, Matthew's rather coy note in retelling the encounter. Both Jesus and John accept that "this is the way it should be for now", but nonetheless, the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan becomes a pivotal moment in his public ministry. Rather ironically, the waters of the Jordan seem to light a fire in Jesus.

Baptism is indication that we thirst: we thirst for meaning, for purpose, for identity, for vocation, for love. Our thirsty land cries out with the same lament that our thirsty souls cry out: "Come down from the heavens and renew the face of the earth!". May the power of water to offer life become a reality for all in our land soon. May our parched soil and bush be quenched by the waters of life.

On the Australia Day weekend, we will hold an appeal for the victims of the bushfires. May both our prayers and support be generous.

FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 1:1-8

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Ps 115:12-19

How can I repay the Lord for his goodness to me?

The cup of salvation I will raise, I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people.

O precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his faithful.

Your servant, Lord, your servant am I; you have loosened my bonds.

A thanksgiving sacrifice I make; I will call on the Lord's name.

My vows to the Lord I will fulfil before all his people, in the courts of the house of the Lord, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near: repent and believe the Good News! Alleluia!

TUESDAY 14 JANUARY 2020

Tuesday of the 1st Week in Ordinary Time

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Upon a lofty throne, I saw a man seated, whom a host of angels adore, singing in unison: Behold him, the name of whose empire is eternal.

FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 1:9-20

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

1 Samuel 2:1, 4-8

My heart exults in the Lord.
I find my strength in my God;
my mouth laughs at my enemies as I rejoice in your saving help.

The bows of the mighty are broken,
but the weak are clothed with strength.
Those with plenty must labour for bread, but the hungry need work no more.
The childless wife has children now but the fruitful wife bears no more.

It is the Lord who gives life and death, he brings men to the grave and back;
it is the Lord who gives poverty and riches.
He brings men low and raises them on high.

He lifts up the lowly from the dust, from the dunghheap he raises the poor to set him in the company of princes, to give him a glorious throne.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Receive this message not as human words,
but as truly the word of God.
Alleluia

GOSPEL: Mark 1:21-28

POSITION VACANT- DIRECTOR OF MUSIC, CATHEDRAL OF ST STEPHEN

The Cathedral of St Stephen is the mother church of the Archdiocese of Brisbane. It is also the parish church of the Archbishop of Brisbane, Most Rev Mark Coleridge who has delegated administration of the Cathedral to the Dean of the Cathedral (Very Rev Anthony Mellor).

The Cathedral of St Stephen strongly encourages the vocal participation of the assembly in its worship. Its organists, cantors and choirs provide effective leadership in the congregational singing of hymns, psalms, responses and parts of the mass. The Cathedral is unusual in serving three purposes: it is a cathedral, a parish church and an inner-city church; and the music repertoire needs to take account of each of these purposes. The Cathedral Director of Music, through the Cathedral Music Department, also supports the liturgical music for St. Patrick's, Fortitude Valley, which forms part of the Cathedral parish.

The Director of Music is responsible for the organisation of the Cathedral Music Program including organ performance and accompaniment, choir direction, rehearsal and accompaniment, organ and other instrument maintenance, general music related administration, and assistance with the coordination and support for special events and concerts in consultation with the Dean and other presiding clergy.

The successful candidate requires:

- Advanced knowledge of Catholic liturgy and music
- Musicianship proven experience in arranging and writing music
- Superior conducting experience
- Experience in musical, choral and religious ceremonies performances
- Collaborative working style
- Sound understanding of risk

- Able to act with integrity
- Budgeting and managerial skills

Weekend coverage is a requirement of the position, therefore Monday and Tuesdays are the normal two-day break each week.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane is committed to being a diverse and inclusive workplace. This is a unique opportunity to work for a values-based organisation and utilise your leadership skills at one of the largest employers in Queensland. If required, relocation assistance negotiable.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane has standards of conduct for workers to maintain a safe and healthy environment for children. Our commitment to these standards requires that we conduct working with children checks and background referencing for all persons who will engage in direct and regular involvement with children and young people (0 - 18 years) and/or vulnerable adults. The organisation is fully committed to child safety and has a zero tolerance to abuse of children or vulnerable adults

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail Faith for all defects supplying Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing while eternal ages run; Equal praise to him confessing who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

SWEET SACRAMENT DIVINE

Sweet Sacrament Divine,
hid in thy earthly home, Lo! Round thy lowly shrine, with suppliant hearts we come.
Jesus, to thee our voice we raise in songs of love and heartfelt praise,
Sweet Sacrament Divine.

Sweet Sacrament of Peace,
dear home of every heart,
where restless yearnings cease,
and sorrows all depart.
There in thine ear, all trustfully
We tell our tale of misery
Sweet Sacrament of Peace.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper you prayed to the Father that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit upon all who bear your name and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON:

Upon a lofty throne, I saw a man seated, empire is eternal.

FIRST READING: 1 Samuel 3:1-10, 19-20

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Ps 39:2, 5, 7-10

I waited, I waited for the Lord and he stooped down to me; he heard my cry.
Happy the man who has placed his trust in the Lord and has not gone over to the rebels who follow false gods.

You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings, but an open ear. You do not ask for holocaust and victim. Instead, here am I.

In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will. My God, I delight in your law in the depth of my heart.

Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly. My lips I have not sealed;
you know it, O Lord.

Ps 43:10-11, 14-15, 24-25

Yet now you have rejected us, disgraced us: you no longer go forth with our armies. You make us retreat from the foe and our enemies plunder us at will.

You make us the taunt of our neighbours, the mockery and scorn of all who are near.

Among the nations, you make us a byword, among the peoples a thing of derision.

Awake, O Lord, why do you sleep?
Arise, do not reject us for ever!
Why do you hide your face and forget our oppression and misery.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss.

For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory

our might is exalted:
for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord; our king in the keeping of the Holy king; how your saving help makes him glad! You have granted him his heart's desire; you have not refused the prayer of his lips. R

You came to meet him with the blessings

SATURDAY MORNING

Holy Virgin,
turn a look of kindness,
upon those who are in suffering, who are in the midst of difficulties, and who struggle against the misfortunes of this life.

Have pity on those who love and are separated.

Have pity on the feebleness of our faith, have pity on the objects of our tenderness.

Have pity on those who weep,
on those who pray,
on those who fear.

Give us the hope of peace in this troubled world of ours.

Amen

*At our Masses on Friday we have a collection to allow weekday parishioners
