WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

27 JANUARY – 1 FEBRUARY 2020
3RD WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

On this Australia Day, the Liturgy of the Word has a strong sense of place. We hear about the "Land of Zebulun!" and the "Land of Naphtali!" located "on the far side of Jordan". In scripture, "land" is holy. This sense of the sacredness of the soil is not limited to scripture because the "sacredness of place" is also a strong mark of our Australian consciousness. It is something that we have inherited from the traditional custodians of this land, our Aboriginal sisters and brothers.

In the 17th century, Portuguese explorer Pedro Fernandez de Quiros named this part of the world, Australia del Espiritu Santo or the Great South Land of the Holy Spirit. He was standing on Vanuatu at the time, but nonetheless, he was casting his eye far and wide, as far south as the pole, or to echo Isaiah today, "the (long) way of the sea".

However historians have come to interpret these acts of colonialism, on Australia Day, we must come to terms with both the light and dark of what this day acknowledges and celebrates.

I am third generation Australian, and I am grateful for the efforts of previous generations in my family who have forged a life here. I am grateful for our cultural heritage and unique Australian outlook on the world. I am grateful that many generations from many parts of the world have built together a relatively peaceful and harmonious society. I am grateful to live in a beautiful, albeit burnt and dry, corner of the world where we are free to move and live and play and pray.

Even so, we Australians still have plenty of work to do. This is also the summons of Australia Day. We must take meaningful and positive steps towards a binding reconciliation with our indigenous sisters and brothers. This remains a weeping wound in our nation's heart. We must struggle against insularity and isolation which makes us fearful of migrants and refugees and turns otherwise kind hearts towards cruelty. We must be mindful of not allowing disagreement to become division, or diversity to generate discord. Let us pray on this Australia Day that all in our nation will mourn what is lost, rejoice in what we have and work to share in our common wealth together, celebrating this Great South Land of the Holy Spirit.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

*Send your Holy Spirit

and seek to serve you.*

Strengthen our faith in you, and make us love one another in humility.

May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.

Amen

The Lord swore an oath to David; he will not go back on his word: 'A son, the fruit of your body, will I set upon your throne.'

'If they keep my covenant in truth and my laws that I have taught them, their sons also shall rule on your throne from age to age.'

Ps 50:3-7, 10-11

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done.

That you may be justified when you give sentence and be without reproach when you judge, O see; in guilt I was born, a sinner was I conceived.

Make me hear rejoicing and gladness, that the bones you have crushed may thrill. From my sins turn away your face and blot out all my guilt.
