THE CATHEDRAL OF ST STEPHEN

Embracing Villa Maria and St Patrick's Fortitude Valley

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

17—22 FEBRUARY 2020
6TH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

There is a rather straight forward, no nonsense introduction to our liturgy of the Word this week-end. The writer of the Book of Ecclesiasticus says without any equivocation:

If you wish, you can keep the commandments, to behave faithfully is within your power. God has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer.

In two concise sentences, we have both an analysis of the human condition and the antidote of the Divine cure. To behave faithfully is a possibility for each of us. Notice that the writer doesn't say that behaving sinlessly but rather faithfully. Living without sin is not a realistic option for any of us. The more realistic possibility for each of us is to live faithfully—to live fully in faith. To live faithfully is to grow in trust in our relationship with God; to be less harsh critics of our sisters and brothers and develop greater habits of generosity; to be of service to those in need. Trust, generosity and service are the practice of God's commandments and such habits are not beyond our capabilities. God does not ask us to do the impossible. God asks us to do what is necessary so that God's kingdom may come. The next line describes our dilemma: we have a choice. We put out our hand for whichever we prefer. God may put before us commandments, but the choice is ours.

As every parent knows, there comes a time when children must be allowed to make their own choices if they are to walk that rocky road to adulthood. So too with us, if we are to mature in faith, we must take responsibility for our own lives, our faith and our decisions. Part of the process of growing-up is making mistakes and coming to understand the consequences of those mistakes and taking responsibility for who we are becoming.

This is what the author of our first reading is saying: the life that God offers us is possible but only if we choose to grow into it. This will necessarily include making mistakes and failed choices (we are not sinless) but we only become faithless when we give up. To respond to God faithfully is one of the choices that we have, but this needs to be a daily choice to grow in trust, generosity and service. It is possible to refuse this path and find ourselves cynical, selfish and self-serving. The choice is ours. Fr. Anthony

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing
who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

SOUL OF MY SAVIOUR

Soul of my Saviour, sanctify my breast;
Body of Christ, be thou my saving guest;
Blood of my Saviour, bathe me in thy tide,
Wash me with water flowing from thy side.

Strength and protection may thy Passion be;
O blessed Jesus, hear and answer me;
Deep in thy wounds, Lord, hide and shelter me;
So shall I never, never part from thee.

Guard and defend me from the foe malign;
In death's dread moments make me only thine.
Call me and bid me come to thee on high,
When I may praise thee with thy saints for aye.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper
you prayed to the Father that all should be one.*

*Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us
love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

truth from his heart; he who does not slander with his tongue.

He who does no wrong to his brother,
who casts no slur on his neighbour,

accepts no bribes against the innocent.
Such a man will stand firm for ever.

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. R

He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name. If I should walk in the valley of darkness no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. R

You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil; my cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. R

SATURDAY MORNING

VISITATION

Blest be the Virgin Mary among women!
Blest be Jesus, her Child!
Supremely blest is God our Father,
source of all grace and all blessing!

When Mary visited her cousin Elizabeth,
she brought her the presence of Jesus,
and was for her the source of joy.

Each time that we meet our brothers and sisters,
we can likewise bring them the presence of Jesus Christ
and enlighten them by the radiance of his joy.

God our Father, give us the same grace that you bestowed through the Virgin Mary on the day of the Visitation.

We ask this of you in the name of the love
that you have for your only Son, Jesus Christ,
and in memory of his beloved Mother.

Amen

At our Masses on Friday we have a collection to allow weekday parishioners to support the Cathedral. Thank you for your contribution.
