THE CATHEDRAL OF
ST. STEPHEN

Embracing Villa Maria and St Patrick's Fortitude Valley

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

24 – 29 AUGUST 2020

21ST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

Questions of identity seem to pervade our modern world. Who am I? Who am I supposed to be? What am I meant to be doing? In our search for personal freedom, everybody wants to be an individual and to be free enough to be themselves. This search for freedom is an ironic freedom. People want to be themselves to the extent they are like the other people whom they look up to. And the strange thing is, our unique person identity comes to look like other people whom we admire and imitate. In the end, we don't want to be ourselves at all. We want to be someone else. This all becomes disguised in the search for freedom. It seems that much of the time, we human beings tend to run away from ourselves.

We had lived in an age where the focus was on our individual freedom until the coronavirus came along. Now, in our Covid-19 world, the focus has turned towards the community and our need to forego our individual freedoms for the common good. "We are all in this Together" has become the common refrain. Jesus is making a similar point today. When Jesus asks the question, "Who do you say I am?" he is in truth asking a question about how we understand our identity. It is Simon Peter who speaks up firstly and then, in the conversation that follows, Jesus calls him two names: "Simon" and then gives him another name, "Peter," meaning "rock". Simon doesn't say, "From now on, I want to be known as 'Peter'". It is Jesus who gives him that name. All this happens within the context of establishing a new community: "On you I will build my church. On your faith and friendship, I will establish my new community of love and life."

This is why community is so indispensable. It is only in relationship with others that we can discover our true identity. The question is not only about who we think Jesus is, but Jesus is also prompting us to think about who we are and our identity. In discovering who God is and who we are, we also come to realise that we are all in this together, working as partners and friends of Jesus.

Marian Prayer

Hail, most gracious Mother of Mercy, through whom we obtain forgiveness!
Who would not love you?

You are our light in uncertainty,
our comfort in sorrow,
our consolation in trial,
our refuge from every danger and temptation.

You are our sure hope of salvation,
second only to your only-begotten Son.

Happy are they who love you, Our Lady!

I beg you to listen to my prayers,
even though I am a poor sinner.

Scatter the darkness of my sins
by the bright beams of your holiness so that I may be pleasing to you. Amen.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing
who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

SWEET SACRAMENT DIVINE

Sweet Sacrament Divine,
hid in thy earthly home,
Lo! Round thy lowly shrine,
with suppliant hearts we come.
Jesus, to thee our voice we raise
in songs of love and heartfelt praise,
Sweet Sacrament Divine.

Sweet Sacrament of Peace,
dear home of every heart,
where restless yearnings cease,
and sorrows all depart.
There in thine ear, all trustfully
We tell our tale of misery
Sweet Sacrament of Peace.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper
you prayed to the Father
that all should be one.*

upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us
love one another in humility.*

May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.

Amen

SATURDAY MORNING HYMNS

PROCESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII422

Sing we now the glorious martyrs

1. Sing we now the glorious martyrs, faithful, fallen, raised on high. strong they stood, in ranks of courage, loath to live if truth must die.

2. Grant to us, O God, their wisdom that could dare to choose the cross, Christ their one and only treasure all else, even life, no loss.

3. Keep alight upon our hilltops, lamps like these, set high apart, flames of faith no night can vanquish, beacons for the faint of heart.

4. Let them burn with such an ardour that the very dark must quail. Faced with love so all consuming death itself cannot prevail.

COMMUNION HYMN: CWBII457

Blessed Jesus, at your word

Blessed Jesus, at your word we are gathered all to hear you; let our hearts and minds be stirred now to seek and love and fear you; by your gospel pure and holy teach us, Lord, to love you solely.

All our knowledge, sense and sight lie in deepest darkness shrouded, till your spirit breaks our night with your beams of truth unclouded; you alone to God can win us, you must work all good within us.

Glorious Lord, yourself impart, light of light from God proceeding; open lips and ears and heart, help us by your Spirit's leading; hear the cry your Church now raises; Lord, accept our prayers and praises.

RECESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII414

Servant of the Word

Servant of the Word, handmaid of the Lord, blest are you, O Mary! Mother of God's only Son, chosen as the holy one; pray for us and lead us to the Son of God.

Bearer of God's Son, woman of great faith, blest are you, O Mary! Docile to the will of God, holy Mary heart of love; pray for us and lead us to the Son of God.

Mary full of grace, woman truly chaste, blest are you, O Mary! Mother of the Word made flesh, guide the Church to holiness; pray for us and lead us to the Son of God.

Christ, by all adored, is your Son and Lord; blest are you, O Mary! Blest the fruit of your own womb, Jesus risen from the tomb; pray for us and lead us to the Son of God.
