

Changes to Registration Process for Mass

We are in the process of exploring new ways to make registration for all Masses more streamlined and to avoid the regular occurrence of people registering for Mass and not honouring their registration with attendance, (or registering for two Sunday Masses).

A QR code has been developed and it will be a simple process of scanning the QR code on your smartphone, entering your details and showing your confirmation to the marshal before entering the Cathedral, much like registering at a cafe. If you do not have a smartphone and do not have the ability to register electronically, there will be limited seats available for manual registration at the door.

We will commence trialling the system at the weekday Masses from next week and depending on the outcome of these trials, it is anticipated that on the weekend 7/8 November, registration for Sunday Masses will take place on arrival at the door of the Cathedral.

We are sure to have teething problems for the first couple of Sundays however we believe in the long term, and especially for Christmas Masses, it will be easier for everyone. Your patience and cooperation is, as always, very much appreciated.

The following guidelines remain in place:

- If you are feeling unwell, please stay home and participate in Mass on-line via the Cathedral website;
- Physical distancing of 1.5m, whilst standing in the queue to check-in, during Mass and whilst in the Communion procession, is essential;
- Hand hygiene (sanitising your hands before entering the church and when exiting);
- Respiratory hygiene (coughing/sneezing into elbow);
- The number of people in our churches at any one time must be strictly adhered to.

 Maintenance in the Cathedral

On Tuesday, 6th October works will take place in the Cathedral which will necessitate the 8.00am & 10.00am Masses, the 10.30am Reconciliation and Adoration and Benediction being held in the Chapel. As the numbers for the Chapel are restricted to 34, if you regularly attend these Masses, please register on-line, otherwise you may miss out. The 12.30pm Mass will be held in the Cathedral and will be livestreamed.

Collections

The collection for the Cathedral parish will be taken up during the Offertory and after Communion. The collection bags will not be passed along the pews, rather Collectors will walk between the seats. We thank you for your financial support of the Cathedral parish.

Summer is here!

Now that the hotter weather has arrived, we have opened all the doors of the Cathedral to allow the flow of air. However, because of the government restrictions and requirements for COVID tracing, entry to the Cathedral is still only through the one side door. Your continued co-operation is appreciated.

Organ Maintenance

The Cathedral Jubilee Pipe Organ is undergoing major maintenance. To enable maintenance to proceed as smoothly and quickly as possible, the Cathedral and Chapel will be closed from approx. 2.00pm each afternoon Monday to Friday. The Chapel will re-open at 4.00pm to enable the 4.30pm Reconciliation and 5.10pm Mass to be held in St Stephen's Chapel. Moving into the future, we may need to adjust the opening times of the Cathedral and Chapel depending upon the availability of volunteer marshals.

Catholic Charismatic Renewal Brisbane

Monthly Prayer Meeting will be held in St Stephen's Chapel, on Wednesday 7th October (10.45 - 12.15pm) following the regular 10am Mass. (You will need to ring the Cathedral 3324 3030 to book for Mass).

You are invited to join in the City for Praise & Worship & Personal Prayer Ministry. Due to COVID19 restrictions 34 people are allowed in the Chapel, please ring Maureen on 0403 002 199 or Helena 0405 321 901.

WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

5 - 10 OCTOBER 2020
27TH WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

Today is the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi (although it is not celebrated liturgically this year because it falls on a Sunday). Yesterday, Pope Francis signed a new encyclical in Assisi called Fratelli tutti. It is dedicated, as we read in the subtitle, to "fraternity" and "social friendship". The original Italian title will be used, without being translated, in all the languages in which the document is published. The first words of the new "circular letter" (this is the meaning of the word "encyclical") come from the great Saint of Assisi, whose name Pope Francis chose.

There has been much discussion about the title and its meaning. It is a direct quotation from St. Francis but the title in no way intends to exclude women, as it is best translated as "sisters and brothers all". The Pope chose the words of St. Francis to offer his reflections on the need for human solidarity and mutual friendship at this time. He addresses this letter to all people; we who are brothers and sisters of one another. In these Covid-19 times, our bond is more important than ever.

We live in a time marked by war, poverty, migration, climate change, economic crises, and pandemic. Recognising everyone as a brother or sister and, for Christians, recognising the face of Jesus in the other, especially in those who suffer requires us to affirm the sacred dignity of every human person as people who are created in the image of God. As the pandemic goes on, and our stresses and strains mount, we are reminded that no one can emerge from the present hardships alone. Our temptation will be to splinter into groups, and pit one against the other; the global North against the global South, the rich against the poor or the young against the old.

A central theme of this encyclical is blessed are we in our common need. Mutual concern and friendship unites us and can overcome all that divides us and threatens us. Our profound connection must be expressed through acts of kindness, generosity, justice and compassion, particularly in these times of great need. May we grow as sisters and brothers in name and truth.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing
who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

GOD WITH HIDDEN MAJESTY

(Gather Aust. 388)

God with hidden majesty, lies in presence here,
I with deep devotion my true God revere:
Whom this outward shape and form secretly contains,
Christ in his divinity manhood still retains.

All my other senses, cannot now perceive,
But my hearing, taught by faith, always will believe:
I accept whatever God the Son has said:
Those who hear the word of God, by the truth are fed.

Blest reminder of the death suffered for the world,
Sacrament of living bread, health to every mind,
Let my soul approach you, live within your grace,
Let me taste the perfect joys time shall not efface.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

*Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper
you prayed to the Father
that all should be one.
Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name
and seek to serve you.*

*Strengthen our faith in you, and make us
love one another in humility.
May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.
Amen*

SATURDAY MORNING HYMNSPROCESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII411Mary, Mother of Good Counsel

Mary, Mother of Good Counsel, you found favour in God's sight. Over shadowed by the Spirit, you brought forth the world's true light. Filled with faith and holy wisdom, you were worthy of God's choice. May we too possess these virtues so that we may hear God's voice.

All God's people give you honour, graceful bearer of Good News. Be for us a constant model, holy one whom God did choose. May we sing God's saving power; may we tend to human need. May God's word dwell deep within us, counsel for each holy deed.

Glory to the God who made us, who is author of all life; glory to the Word Incarnate, who redeemed us from all strife; glory to the Holy Spirit, who in water gives rebirth; for the gift of Blessed Mary to the pilgrim Church on earth.

COMMUNION HYMN: CWBII514I want to walk as a child of the lightRefrain:*

In him there is no darkness at all. The night and the day are both a like. The Lamb is the light of the city of God. Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

1. I want to walk as a child of the light. I want to follow Jesus. God set the stars to give light to the world, the star of my life is Jesus.

2. I want to see the brightness of God. I want to look at Jesus. Clear sun of righteousness shine on my path and show me the way to the Father.

3. I'm looking for the coming of Christ. I want to be with Jesus. When we have run with patience the race, we shall know the joy of Jesus.

RECESSIONAL HYMN: CWBII213Tell out, my soul

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord: Unnumbered blessings, give my spirit voice; Tender to me the promise of his word; In God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his name: Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done; His mercy sure, from age to age the same; His holy name, the Lord, the Mighty One.

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might: Powers and dominions lay their glory by; Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight, The hungry fed, the humble lifted high.

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word: Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure. Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord To children's children and for evermore.
