WEEKDAY PRAYER SHEET

2 - 7 NOVEMBER 2020
31ST WEEK IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

The community of the Cathedral of St. Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

Dear friends,

There was once an evangelical preacher, who in the middle of his passionate and enthusiastic sermon, asked his congregation, "Brothers and Sisters, raise your hand if you want to go to heaven". The preacher was surprised when the most devout and fervent Christian woman in his congregation didn't put her hand up. He was worried about this for the rest of the service and afterwards, he went up to the woman and asked her why she, of all people, didn't raise her hand. She said, "Oh sorry, preacher. I misunderstood. I thought that you wanted us to leave right now!" Like that devoted lady, there aren't too many of us that want to leave for heaven right now, despite all its pre-publicity.

We can think of heaven as a reward for living a good and holy life, like a prize that we have earned through hard-work and a lifetime of piety. There is another way of looking at heaven. Heaven is not so much a reward, but a gift. It is the culmination of all the gifts that God has given us in life (and death). In heaven, the saints no longer contemplate God "from the outside" but experience God through an immersion in the boundless ocean of God's life and love. As St. Augustine once wrote, "After this life, God Himself is where we will be". This is the prayer of every Christian.

Today is the feast of not only all the "official" saints of the church but also those who have been saints to us in this life. We all know people in this life who have shown us the face of God through their gentleness, passion, generosity, sense of justice, prayerfulness, playfulness, kindness and loving nature. This is their feast day too and we give thanks that they have been living witnesses to the power of faith.

Saint John describes the great multitude who give heavenly praise to God. This gathering of those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, continues to be our most ardent supporters and courageous examples. Death does not destroy the bonds of human love and relationship. The praise of the saints, official and unofficial, continues to echo in our world and our lives. None of us are left to our own devices to find our way home. That's why we celebrate the saints. They are our friends close to the heart of God. Supported and encouraged by this great assembly, may we too shine forth in this world as signs of peace and love, courage and faithfulness so that others may see the goodness of God in us and through us. Faith is the bridge that joins heaven and earth, so let us continue on the journey together, eagerly longing for God's greatest gift.

Fr. Anthony

Traditionally it is a time to remember, and in gratitude, pray for those who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. After mass today or any day throughout November you are invited to inscribe the names of those who you want to remember, in the Book of Remembrance, which as a community, helps us focus our prayers as we pray for our deceased sisters and brothers. May they all rest in peace.

Benediction Hymns and Prayer

O SAVING VICTIM

O saving victim opening wide
The gate of heaven to us below.
Our foes press on from every side
Thy strength supply, thine aid bestow.

All praise and thanks to thee ascend
For evermore blest three in one,
O grant us life that shall not end
In our true native land with thee
AMEN.

HYMN OF ADORATION

Down in adoration falling,
This great sacrament we hail;
Ancient types have long departed
Newer rites of grace prevail
Faith for all defects supplying
Where the feeble senses fail.

Glory let us give and blessing
To the Father and the Son, honour, might and praise addressing
while eternal ages run;
Equal praise to him confessing who proceeds from both as one.
AMEN

V. You have given them bread from heaven
R. Having in itself all delight.

GOD WITH HIDDEN MAJESTY (Gather Aust. 388)

God with hidden majesty, lies in presence here,
I with deep devotion my true God revere:
Whom this outward shape and form secretly contains,
Christ in his divinity manhood still retains.

All my other senses, cannot now perceive,
But my hearing, taught by faith, always will believe:
I accept whatever God the Son has said:
Those who hear the word of God, by the truth are fed.

Blest reminder of the death suffered for the world,
Sacrament of living bread, health to every mind,
Let my soul approach you, live within your grace,
Let me taste the perfect joys time shall not efface.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY

Lord Jesus Christ at your last supper you prayed to the Father that all should be one.

*Send your Holy Spirit
upon all who bear your name and seek to serve you.*

Strengthen our faith in you, and make us love one another in humility.

May we, who have been reborn in one baptism, be united in one faith under one shepherd.

Amen
