Dear friends,

On September 30, 2019, Pope Francis declared in an apostolic letter that “the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God” (Aperuit Illis, 3). This letter and the establishment of a Sunday to focus on God’s word has the potential to renew our parish communities, however the timing is quite impractical in Australia. As the dates get mixed up with the final weeks of the summer holidays, the return to school and the celebration of Australia Day. In Australia, the Sunday of the Word of God has been moved to the first Sunday in February each year.

To understand why a special Sunday focusing on the word of God is important, we have to recall two previous Church teachings about the word of God.

At the Second Vatican Council, the bishops wanted to say something about who God is and how we know who God is. In its document on divine revelation, Dei Verbum, the Second Vatican Council said that we know who God is because God enters into a relationship with us.

Instead of learning facts about God, the council challenged us to know God. God takes the initiative to enter into a personal, loving relationship with us. It is through that encounter that we come to know who God is.

The way that God enters into that personal, loving relationship with us is through the gift of God’s word.

In his letter instituting “Word of God Sunday”, Pope Francis, focussed on the relationship between the Risen Lord, the community of believers and sacred Scripture as being essential to our identity as Christians. The reason we need to take this seriously is not so that we will become better scripture scholars. Pope Francis wants us to have a deeper encounter with the living Christ, through scripture, so that we will become a Church and a people committed to mercy.

To listen to sacred Scripture and then to practice mercy: this is the great challenge before us in life. God’s word has the power to open our eyes and to enable us to renounce a stifling and barren individualism and instead to embark on a new path of sharing and solidarity. May we all become living words of God.

Prayer in Time of Pandemic

Almighty and eternal God,
our refuge in every danger,
to whom we turn in our distress;
in faith we pray
look with compassion on the afflicted,
grant eternal rest to the dead,
comfort to mourners,
healing to the sick, peace to the dying,
strength to healthcare workers, wisdom to our leaders and the courage to reach out to all in love,
so that together we may give glory
to your holy name.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ,
your Son,
who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

INTROIT

Psalm 94

Venite, adoremus Deum, et procidamus ante Dominum:
ploremus ante eum, qui fecit
nos: quia ipse est Dominus Deus noster.

*Come, let us worship God and bow down before the Lord;
let us come before the Lord who made us, for he is the Lord our God.*

ENTRANCE HYMN

CWBII 644

Word of God, come down on earth, living rain from heaven descending;
touch our hearts and bring to birth faith and hope and love unending.
Word almighty, we revere you;
Word made flesh, we long to hear you.

Word eternal, throned on high,
Word that bought to life creation,
Word that came from heaven to die,
crucified for our salvation,
saving Word, the world restoring,
speak to us, your love outpouring.

Word that caused blind eyes to see,
speak and heal our mortal blindness;
deaf we are: our healer be;
loose our tongues to tell your kindness.
Be our Word in pity spoken;
heal the world, by our sin broken.

Hope in God, hold firm and take heart.
Hope in the Lord! Refrain

---

Now let us from this table rise renewed in body, mind and soul;
with Christ we die and rise again,
his selfless love has made us whole.

With minds alert, upheld by grace,
to spread the Word in speech and deed,
we follow in the steps of Christ,
at one with all in hope and need.

To fill each human house with love,
it is the sacrament of care;
the work that Christ began to do we humble pledge ourselves to share.

Then give us courage, living God,
to choose again the pilgrim way
and help us to accept with joy
the challenge of tomorrow's day.
