Readings for today: Jeremiah 17:5-8; 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20; Luke 6:17, 20-26

Dear friends,

We have taken another step towards a post-pandemic world with the removal of the requirement to register with the QR codes (in most places) upon entry. At this stage, it remains mandatory to wear face masks indoors and to be aware of physical distancing recommendations.

Every little step forward is a positive step. It would be naïve to believe that the new world in front of us will be the same of the pre-Covid world that we have left behind. Some things will snap easily back in place when the time is right, but other things might not. It is hard to tell from this vantage point how much of our world has changed.

Someone made the observation recently that in the rush to return to normal, we should use this time "to consider which parts of normal are worth rushing back to". Little by little, "normality" is becoming more recognisable. Nevertheless, this time of transition is an opportunity to be more deliberate and intentional about our personal and communal priorities. The importance of relationships, the care of the vulnerable, the power of collective action, the pointlessness of being consumed by the frantic pace of life, and our need for routine and predictability in daily life are all key lessons during the last two years. If we have been paying attention, we will have also noticed the inequities in our society and world: the endemic poverty of the First Nations communities and their limited access to resources; the division of the delivery of social services between urban and rural areas; vaccine access for poorer nations; the importance of the "human" component of our economy and supply chains; and the understaffed and underfunded areas of our health services, such as the aged care and disability sectors.

Jesus is clear today that in his "new normal", not everything is worth rushing back to. Jesus says that the time is up for the rich, the full and the frivolous, while the poor, the hungry and the distressed are welcome recipients of the justice of God's reign. This vision of Jesus provides us with the fundamental priorities to build our new lives and God's new world. Let's rush towards the new vision that Jesus announces today. Fr. Anthony

Cathedral Guides and Welcomers

You are cordially invited to attend via zoom, the Cathedral Guides and Welcomers meeting at 10.30 am on Thursday 17 February where Barbara Reynolds-Hutchinson will give a presentation on The San Damiano Cross, one of the most recognisable symbols of Christianity. The Cross which has its roots in the Franciscan tradition, depicts the Paschal Mystery in one icon, the story of the death, resurrection and ascension of Christ. Please email your acceptance by COB on Tuesday 15th February to: adelem2@bigpond.com. The zoom link will then be sent to you.

Synod on Synodality

Until 27 February 2022, all Catholics are invited to have their say about their experiences of 'synodality' – of walking together as a Church. All submissions received nationally will help the Australian Bishops develop a report to support the global process leading to an international gathering in 2023. This is not to be confused with the Australian Plenary Council which is running concurrently with the Synod. The Plenary Council focus is on the Church in Australia. The Synod is focussed on the Church globally. Your voice matters, and it could be as simple as getting together with family, friends or fellow parishioners and having a "Coffee Conversation". This short video offers encouragement on how easy it can be to have your say: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YrgZ-N79Kf0> You can make your submission here: <https://www.catholic.org.au/synodalchurch>

Lent and the Easter Octave 2022

Evangelisation Brisbane has developed a new Lent and Easter Octave reflection resource called The Spirit and the Cross.

Written for busy individuals but easily adapted for groups, each day includes a scripture reading and a reflection upon it, some questions to aid prayer and discussion, and relevant quotes from Pope Francis.

The reflection resource will be available for purchase for $5ea from next Sunday 20 February or from Mercy House.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 30

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

Be my protecting, saving God,
My just security.
For you are my support, and you
Will lead and nourish me.

In you, O Lord, I seek support;
Let me not be disgraced.
In righteousness deliver me,
Attend my needs, make haste.

The Lord preserves his faithful ones
But scorns all haughty souls.
Be strong, and let your heart exult,
All you who seek the Lord

Give glory to our loving God,
The Father and the Son,
And also to the Paraclete
Eternal Three-in-one!

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Ps 77

Manducaverunt, et saturati sunt nimis, et desiderium
eorum attulit eis Dominus:
non sunt fraudati a desiderio
suo.

They ate and were fully satisfied;
the Lord gave them all that they desired; they were not deprived of their wants.

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 488

For the fruits of all creation,
thanks be to God.
For these gifts to ev'ry nation,
thanks be to God.
For the ploughing, sowing, reaping,
silent growth while we are sleeping,
future needs in earth's safe keeping,
thanks be to God.

In the just reward of labour,
God's will is done.
In the help we give our neighbour,
God's will is done.
In our world wide task of caring for the hungry and despairing,
in the harvests we are sharing,
God's will is done.

For the harvests of the Spirit,
thanks be to God.
For the good we all inherit,
thanks be to God.
For the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all that love has found us,
thanks be to God.

(CWBII 455)

Refrain Seek, O seek the Lord, while he is near;

1. God, be with us in our lives,
Direct us in our calling;
Break the snares the world contrives,
Keep us from falling. Refrain
2. God, increase in us the life
That Christ by dying gave us:
Though we faint in mortal strife
His blood will save us. Refrain
3. Strengthen in our hearts the love
We owe to one another;
How can we love God above
And not our brother? Refrain

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
be all else but naught to me, save that thou art,
be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word;
be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord,
be thou my great Father, thy child let me be,
be thou in me dwelling, and I one with thee.

Be thou my breastplate, my sword for the fight,
be thou my whole armour, be thou my true might,
be thou my soul's shelter, be thou my strong tower,
O raise thou me heav'n ward, great Power of my power.
