Bishop Elect Tim Norton

I was born and raised in Sydney, and am the middle of three children. My schooling was initially with the Mercy Sisters, then the Marist Brothers, in Eastwood. After high school, I completed a Bachelor of Applied Science in Physiotherapy, then worked in two large, general hospitals prior to joining the Society of the Divine Word (SVD) at the age of 25. I took final vows in 1990 and was ordained a priest in 1991.

If I was asked what have been some formative points for me on this journey with the Spirit, I would nominate the following –

- Visiting the SVD communities in India during the university holidays with Father Liam Horsfall SVD. I met Mother Theresa in 'Kalighat' (Home for the Dying) in Kolkata. That experience was like meeting an international rock star!
- Working part-time during my seminary days as a physiotherapist in Pentridge prison, Melbourne. In my professional life, I had not previously encountered so many violence-related injuries. There were some situations that I found helpful to make sense of by talking about them with colleagues and lecturers in my theology classes
- Living and working in Cana Communities in inner city Sydney with young people with mental health issues and/or addictions. I thought initially that I could 'wash the feet' of others, but soon found that we were all washing the feet of one another. I was proud and happy to invite the members of this community to the liturgy of my priestly ordination. Finding signs of the Spirit in unexpected places!

- Working in parish ministry in a densely crowded barrio in Mexico City. It was estimated that, in the 2.5 square kilometres of the parish, there were 80,000 – 100,000 parishioners. Along with 100 catechists, we prepared over 1,000 children each year for their first communion. For me, this was an outstanding experience of parish community life and collaboration.
- Working with SVD priests and brothers in our sabbatical programs in Italy. We worked hard to provide them with insightful and challenging ongoing formation. I am proud of the diverse ministry situations that my confreres are facing in many parts of the world.
- Working in the area of interculturality with consecrated women and men in various parts of the world, both in person and online. Culture is so important for each and every one of us.

As I approach my episcopal ordination, I am sure that I will be surrounded in ministry with gifted and lively people, willing to help me find my place in the mission of God in the Brisbane Archdiocese, and in the Church in Australia.

Please pray for me - +Tim

Synod on Synodality

All Catholics are invited to have their say about their experiences of 'synodality' - of walking together as a Church. Responses will be received up until 13 March. All submissions received nationally will help the Australian Bishops develop a report to support the global process leading to an international gathering in 2023. This is not to be confused with the Australian Plenary Council which is running concurrently with the Synod. The Plenary Council focus is on the Church in Australia. The Synod is focussed on the Church globally. Your voice matters, and it could be as simple as getting together with family, friends or fellow parishioners and having a "Coffee Conversation". This short video offers encouragement on how easy it can be to have your say:

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 12

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

In your most steadfast love,
O Lord, I place my trust.
In your salvation I rejoice;
Your ways are good and just.

How long, O Lord, how long
Will you abandon me?
Will you forget me evermore
And hide your face from me?

How long must I bear pain
And sorrow night and day?
How long will enemies exult
And triumph in their way?

Respond and answer me,
Give light unto my eyes,
Or I will slumber into death
While enemies rejoice.

Give glory to our God,
The Father, and the Son,
And also to the Paraclete,
Eternal Three-in-One.

Ps 9

Narrabo omnia mirabilia

te: psallam nomini tuo, Altissime.

*I will relate all your wonderous deeds. I will be glad and rejoice

of your name, O Most High.*

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 551

Lord, whose love in humble service
bore the weight of human need,
who did on the cross, forsaken,
show us mercy's perfect deed:
we, your servants, bring the worship
not of voice alone, but heart;
consecrating to your purpose
ev'ry gift which you impart.

As we worship, grant us vision,
till your love's revealing light,
till the height and depth and greatness
dawns upon our quickened sight;
making known the needs and burdens
your compassion bids us bear,
stirring us to faithful service,
your abundant life to share.

Called from worship to your service,
forth in your dear name we go,
to the child, the youth, the aged,
love in living deeds to show.
Hope and health, good will and comfort,
counsel, aid, and peace we give,
that your children, Lord, in freedom
may your mercy know and live.

Music: Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

Great God of mercy, God of consolation,
look on your people, gathered here to praise you:
pity our weakness, come in pow'r to aid us,
source of all blessing.

Jesus, Redeemer, Lord of all creation,
come as our Saviour, Jesus, friend of sinners:
grant us forgiveness, lift our downcast spirit,
heal us and save us.

Joy-giving Spirit, be our light in darkness,
come to befriend us, help us bear our burdens:
give us true courage, breathe your peace around us,
stay with us always.

God in three Persons, Trinity eternal,
come to renew us, fill your Church with glory:
grant us your healing, pledge of resurrection,
foretaste of heaven.

Lord, whose love in humble service
bore the weight of human need,
who did on the cross, forsaken,
show us mercy's perfect deed:
we, your servants, bring the worship
not of voice alone, but heart;
consecrating to your purpose
ev'ry gift which you impart.

As we worship, grant us vision,
till your love's revealing light,
till the height and depth and greatness
dawns upon our quickened sight;
making known the needs and burdens
your compassion bids us bear,
stirring us to faithful service,
your abundant life to share.

Called from worship to your service,
forth in your dear name we go,
to the child, the youth, the aged,
love in living deeds to show.
Hope and health, good will and comfort,
counsel, aid, and peace we give,
that your children, Lord, in freedom
may your mercy know and live.

Holy Father, God of might,
throned amid the hosts of light,
take our life, our strength, our love,
King of earth and heav'n above.

Hear the songs your people raise,
songs of joyful thanks and praise,
calling all created things
to adore you, King of kings.

Christ, be with us as we go,
let this blind world see and know,
burning in our lives, the sight
of its only saving light.

So will all exult your name,
and your kingship all proclaim,
heav'n and earth in unity
praise the blessed Trinity.
