Rejoice Jerusalem

Today's entrance antiphon calls us to rejoice.

"Rejoice, Jerusalem, and all who love her.

*Be joyful, all who are in mourning;
exult and be satisfied at her consoling breast."*

We are invited to pause on the journey of Lent and celebrate what God has done, what God is doing and will continue to do in our midst.

We are also called to remember. In today's first reading from the Book of Joshua the Israelites have just entered the Promised Land. Moses has died and Joshua has been appointed by God as the leader of Israel. The entry into the land has not been easy, to continue to dwell in the land will be even more difficult, but at this point in the story there is a pause, it's time to celebrate Passover. They look back to when God freed them from the slavery of Egypt, parted the waters, led them through the dry sea and promised them a land flowing with milk and honey. And so, as they cross over to the Promised Land they pause to reflect and rejoice. This is a new beginning in the history of the people of Israel.

Jesus assures us in the Gospel of today (Luke 15: 11-32) that, as unworthy as we might be, we are not God's slaves, not God's hired help, we are God's daughters and sons. St Paul, in the second reading (2 Cor 5:17-21), assures us that we are a new creation in Christ.

As we look around the world we can feel the despair of war and destruction, we are overwhelmed by the magnitude of the floods and other natural disasters, and we can be paralysed by personal situations in our lives in which there seems no answer, no light. However the invitation is to pause, to look back and recognise the power of God in our own journey and to, in the words of the Responsorial Psalm, "Taste and see the goodness of the Lord."

As you pause today what new stirrings do you recognise within you, what new ways is God opening for you? What new ways is God opening for the Church? What new ways is God opening for the human family?

Let us all spend sometime today to pause and rejoice!

St Vincent de Paul Society – Cathedral Conference

March 27th - 4th Sunday of Lent

In this Sunday's Gospel the prodigal son repents, finding forgiveness and compassion in the heart of his father. In the St Vincent de Paul Society, our mission is to help shape a more compassionate and just society. In the prayerful space of the Lenten season, perhaps consider if God is inviting you to be an instrument of compassion and love to those suffering hardship?

To talk to Trish from our Cathedral's St Vincent de Paul Conference about how you can help, call 0417 913 439 or email membership.bris@svdpqld.org.au.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 24

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

Rejoice, Jerusalem! and come,
All those who love her glorious face.
Rejoice, distressed and mournful souls,
And be consoled by her embrace.

Jerusalem: with what great joy
I heard them say "Let us go there!"
And now at last we take our stand within her gates to make our prayer.

Jerusalem: a city built
To be a place of unity;
The tribes go up, the tribes of God,
To praise God's name eternally.

Jerusalem: within your walls
The thrones of justice serve God's will;
The ancient thrones of David's house Stand and unite God's people still.

parts are bound firmly together!
It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to give

Lord.*

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 294

Lord Jesus, as we turn from sin with strength and hope restored, receive the homage that we bring to you, our risen Lord.

We call on you whose living word has made the Father known, O Shepherd, we have wandered far,
find us and lead us home.

Your glance at Peter helped him know
the love he had denied,
now gaze on us and heal us, Lord,
of selfishness and pride.

Reach out and touch with healing pow'r
the wounds we have received, that in forgiveness we may love
and may no longer grieve.

Then stay with us when ev'ning comes and darkness makes us blind, O stay until the light of dawn
may fill both heart and mind.

PRAYER FOR PEACE AND JUSTICE IN UKRAINE

God of peace and justice, who change the hardened heart
and break the power of violence, we entrust the people of Ukraine to you.

Protect them in this time of peril;
let them know not death but life,
not slavery but freedom.

You are Father of all;
we are brothers and sisters.

Give us the strength to live that truth in love, choosing peace not war.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
