Jesus said:

"My sheep hear my voice.
I know them, and they follow me.
I give them eternal life, and they will never be lost."

Readings for today: Acts 13:14, 43-52; Revelation 7:9, 14-17; John 10:27-30

"Arise, then... women of this day! Arise, all women who have hearts, whether our baptism be that of water or of tears! Say firmly... Our husbands shall not come to us, reeking with carnage, for caresses and applause. Our sons shall not be taken from us to unlearn all that we have been able to teach them of charity, mercy and patience... let women now leave all that may be left of home for a great and earnest day of council....Let them meet first, as women, to bewail and commemorate the dead. Let them then solemnly take council with each other as to the means whereby the great human family can live in peace, each bearing after [their] own kind the sacred impress, not of Caesar, but of God.

These are extracts from the Appeal to Womanhood Throughout the World. The call to action was written around 1870 by Julia Ward Howe a pacifist and suffragette who witnessed firsthand the horrors of the American civil war, when tending to soldiers and orphans. Howe envisioned a global day for women to gather locally to discuss and promote peace. Among her fellow activists was Ann Reeves Jarvis. It was Jarvis' daughter who campaigned for the Mother's Day we know today to broadly honour her mother's memory and mothers generally. Thus a day of joy, was a day born out of the pains of war and of loss. In this regard Mother's Day has a paschal quality. The joy of Easter too is born out of pain – the pain of the cross.

Jesus Christ in his life and in suffering, made present to us the motherhood of God. Blessed Pope John Paul I said that "[God] is our father; even more [God] is our mother. [God] does not want to hurt us, [God] wants only to do good to us, to all of us. If children are ill, they have additional claim to be loved by their mother. And we too, if by chance we are sick with badness, on the wrong track, have yet another claim to be loved by the Lord". I would add that mothers too make present in their vocation, the care of God.

Despite its pastoral imagery, today's gospel is pregnant with glimpses of divine motherhood in its protectiveness, its knowledge of those in Christ's care, his determination to nurture them, his determination to guard them. He might as well have said "My children listen to my voice", "I know them and they follow me", "they will never be lost and no one will ever steal them from me". To all mothers, for your love and dedication, I wish you...

Happy Mother's Day.

God bless, Fr. Francis

Blessing Prayer for Mother's Day

God of Love,

We ask you to listen to our prayer.

God of Holy People

of Sarah, Ruth and Rebekah;

God of holy Elizabeth, mother of John,

of Holy Mary, Mother of Jesus,

bend down Your ear to this request and bless all mothers.

Bless them with the strength of Your Spirit,

they who have taught their children how to stand and how to walk.

Bless them with the melody of Your love,

they who have shared how to speak, how to sing and how to pray to You.

Bless them with a place at Your eternal dinner table,

they who have fed and nurtured the life that was formed within them while still helpless but embraced in their love.

Bless them today,

now, in this lifetime, with good things, with health.

Bless them with joy, love, laughter

and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.

May they who carried life in their womb

be carried one day to Your divine embrace:

there, for all eternity, to rejoice with their family and friends.

May those women who have never borne children,

share their maternal gifts and know the joy of nurturing love.

This blessing and all graces, we pray,

descend upon the mothers of our families:

May the blessing of Almighty God come down and rest upon you;

in name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Notes for Notes

The campaign has begun to raise funds to restore our Cathedral Jubilee Pipe Organ, which was badly damaged in the February deluge.

It will be out of action for some time while repairs are made. To get our instrument playing again, a campaign to help cover costs has been launched, 'notes for notes'. Can you help?

Envelopes are available in the Cathedral, and can be left in the collection plates, or at the Cathedral Office.

ENTRANCE SONG

CWBII 620

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
he makes me down to lie
in pastures green; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
and me to walk doth make
within the paths of righteousness,
e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
yet will I fear no ill:
for thou art with me, and thy rod
and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
in presence of my foes;
my head thou dost with oil anoint,
and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me;
and in God's house for ever more
my dwelling place shall be.

COMMUNION

Ave Verum

Ave, verum corpus natum de Maria Virgine: vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro
homine: cuius latus
perforatum fluxit aqua et sanguine: esto nobis
praegustatum, in mortis
examine. O Jesu dulcis, O
Jesu pie, O Jesu Fili Mariae.

*Hail the true body, born from the Virgin Mary: You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for the sake of man. From whose pierced flank flowed water and blood: Be a foretaste for us in the trial of death. O sweet, O merciful, O Jesus, Son of Mary.
Have mercy on me. Amen.*

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

COMMUNION HYMN

CWBII 357

Good Shepherd, you know us, you call us by name.
You lead us; we gladly acknowledge your claim.
Your voice has compelled us; we come at your call.
And none you have chosen will finally fall.

Good shepherd, you warn us of robbers and thieves,
the hireling, the wolf who destroys and deceives.
All praise for your promise on which we shall stand,
that no one can snatch us away from your hand.

Good Shepherd, you lay down your life for the sheep.
Your love is not fickle, your gift is not cheap.
You spend your life freely, and you take it again.
You died, so we live; we are healed by your pain.

At one with the Fathers, you made yourself known:
"I am the Good Shepherd," at one with your own.
You loved us before we had heeded or heard;
by grace we respond to your life-giving word.

Recessional Hymn Hail Redeemer, King Divine (CWBII 400)

All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
him serve with love, his praise forth tell,
come now before him, and rejoice.

Know that the Lord is God indeed;
without our aid he did us make;
we are his folk, he does us feed,
and for his sheep he does us take.

O enter then his gates with praise;
approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good:
his mercy is for ever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below;
praise God the Father, God the Son,
and God the Spirit, ever One.
