THE SEQUENCE OF PENTECOST

Holy Spirit, Lord Divine,
Come, from heights in heaven and shine.
Come with blessed radiance bright!

Come, O Father of the poor,
Come, whose treasured gifts endure.
Come, our heart's unfailing light!

Of consolers, wisest, best,
And our souls' most welcome guest,
Sweet refreshment, sweet repose.

In our labour rest most sweet,
Pleasant coolness in the heat,
Consolation in our woes.

Light most blessed, shine with grace
In our heart's most secret place,
Fill your faithful through and through!

Left without your presence here,
Life itself would disappear,
Nothing thrives apart from you!

Cleanse our soiled hearts of sin,
Arid souls refresh within,
Wounded lives to health restore!

Bend the stubborn heart and will,
Melt the frozen, warm the chill,
Guide the wayward home once more!

On the faithful who are true
And profess their faith in you,
In your seven-fold gift descend!

Give us virtue's sure reward,
Give us your salvation, Lord,
Give us joys that never end.

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Pentecost, some fifty days after Easter, when the gift of the Holy Spirit which descended upon the Apostles in that upper room, and ignited them to go forth into the world and be the messengers of the Good News. Pentecost, from the Greek for 'fiftieth', remains our biggest Sunday celebration after the Day of Resurrection (Easter Sunday).

On certain Feasts (such as today, again in two weekends' time on Corpus Christi, also on Easter Day, and the Feast of Our Lady of Sorrows - though the early church contained many more than the four we celebrate today), our liturgy calls for the image-laden sequence, an additional hymn of praise inserted into the Liturgy of the Word before the proclamation of the Gospel. Today's sequence dates back to the twelfth century, with its ancient Latin title of 'Veni, Sancte Spiritus', or 'Come, Holy Spirit'.

You might want to take today's newsletter with you after Mass and pray this beautiful prayer at home throughout the week. Linked with this is this weekend's first hymn, 'Spirit sent in Jesus' name'. Richard Connolly, perhaps Australia's most prolific and renowned hymn composer, died last month in Sydney aged 94. His rich legacy of hymns (many with the prose of noted author James McAuley) and Mass settings sit at the core of our distinct Australian church music literature, continuing to inspire generations of worshippers. Many of these hymns remain in use for us week by week as we come to celebrate Mass at the Cathedral and St Patrick's.

Come, Holy Spirit!

Local Safeguarding Representative

My name is Susan McKay, and I would like to introduce myself as the new Local Safeguarding Representative for the Cathedral Parish. I have been a parishioner of St Stephen's since 2013 and some of you will recognise me from Saturday evening vigil mass ministries. I grew up in Enoggera and was educated by the Good Samaritan and Presentation Sisters. I have a degree in Business and have worked for Qld Government in various roles for 39 years.

As the parish's Local Safeguarding Representative, my role is to assist in creating and maintaining a safe environment for all parishioners and visitors and indeed everyone involved in activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children, young people and adults-at-risk is paramount in our Archdiocese.

Should you have any concerns or wish to raise an issue with me, please call me on 0418 401 609 or alternatively contact the STOPline Service on 1300 304550. STOPline is a service you can contact to provide anonymous confidential information about 'reportable conduct' under the Archdiocesan Whistleblower Policy.

Fifth Plenary Council of Australia

The Framework for Motions for the second assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of Australia has been published this morning. It emerges from more than four years of listening, dialogue, discernment, reflection and prayer within the Catholic Church in Australia.

Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB, the Plenary Council's president, says the document "will form the backbone of our reflection, discussion and decision when we gather" for the second of two assemblies, to be held in early July. Please find below a related media release from the Plenary Council. You can download the Framework for Motions at:

Holy Spirit, come, confirm us

Holy Spirit, come, possess us,
you the Love of Three in One,
Holy Spirit of the Father,
Holy Spirit of the Son.

Filled with the Spirit's power, with one accord
the infant church confessed its risen Lord:
O Holy Spirit, in the church today
no less your power of fellowship display.

Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire,
that unity may be our great desire:
give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call,
and readiness in each to work for all.

Widen our love, good Spirit, to embrace
in your strong care all those of ev'ry race:
like wind and fire with life among us move
till we are known as Christ's, and Christians prove.

OFFERTORY MOTET 12pm Mass

Come, Holy Spirit, into our hearts; With wind and flame, holy you came, That the nations might praise your Name. Come, Holy Spirit, into our hearts; And thy sevenfold gifts impart. Come Spirit bright, and with thy light, Thy people unite, Forth from the Father, merciful thou art. Come, Holy Spirit, truth divine; Come, fill our lives and make them thine, Come with thy blessings, Come within our hearts to shine.

Music: GF Handel (1685-1759) arr Schweitzer
