

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 10 JULY 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Deuteronomy 30:10-14 ; Colossians 1:15-20; Luke 10:25-37

Dear Friends

Today we celebrate the fact that God has always been present with, and loved, our First Peoples in Australia, a love that God extends to all First Peoples across the world. I was working in Italy last year when I was appointed auxiliary bishop in Brisbane. When I was asked about any preferences I had for the ordination liturgy, I knew that I wanted truly 'Australian' symbols and rituals, but I was relatively powerless to put anything significant in place as I was so far away. I wanted a Pectoral Cross and Vestments decorated in an Aboriginal design. I knew I wanted to be 'smoked' as a symbol of cleansing at the beginning of my Episcopal Ministry. I was deeply touched and strengthened by the results, which included the Vestment design being transferred also to the Mitre, two Pectoral Crosses with Sacred Land from Lake Mungo in their centre, and a Smoking Ceremony inside the Cathedral that included me and all the bishops who entered behind me. I believe God was very happy with that! What amazed me was that so many people were willing to act on my behalf to profile the symbols and rituals of First Nations people in the ordination ceremony. There was an enormous amount of good will and creativity that was made immediately.

NAIDOC has a theme this year of 'Get up, Stand up, Show up'. Labourers for the harvest of the Lord do exactly that - they labour or work for the Lord, and that can take the form of getting up and being active. There is much we can do as Christian people to address issues that affect our First Nations sisters and brothers. I have my story of asking others for help to profile Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture - the world's oldest continuing culture - during my Episcopal Ordination. What is your story? When were you active with issues that affect First Nations people? And if you don't have a story yet of being a labourer in that vineyard, then get up, stand up and show up to places where issues of First Australians are being addressed. People are just waiting to be asked. The harvest is plentiful but the labourers are few.

SEA SUNDAY 2022

STELLA MARIS

Today is Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them, we would not have most of the items we rely on for daily living. Even during a pandemic, seafarers continue to bring into our ports products that sustain our population and economy.

The Appeal is for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church. It supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. To assist this ministry, please send your donations to:

The Long Good-bye

After five years studying in Brisbane and obtaining his Doctorate in Resource Management and celebrating Mass in the Cathedral Parish, Fr Thomas Ismoyo will return to Indonesia at the beginning of August, after his Graduation.

If you wish to donate to a thank you gift to Fr Thomas, envelopes are available at the doors of the Cathedral. You may give your donation directly to Fr Thomas, place it in the collection plate, or bring it to the Cathedral office.

Direct us in our calling;

Keep us from falling. Refrain

2. God, increase in us the life

Though we faint in mortal strife
His blood will save us. Refrain

We owe to one another;
How can we love God above
And not our brother? Refrain

Refrain Where there is charity and love,

Christ, our Lord, the Prince of ages,
Christ, the nations' glorious King,
whom we praise with exultation, saints and angels answering,
to your throne with true devotion, hearts and minds and senses bring.

Come, O Lord, and claim your kingdom, rebel hearts your grace can gain;
bend the stubborn will of rulers who from homage still refrain:
in the home as in the city be supreme, O Christ, and reign.

On our own dear land, Australia,
let the light of mercy shine, that, in holy Church united,
all may know the saving sign:
Christ, up on the cross up lifted,
drawing all with love divine.
