

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 17 JULY 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Genesis 18:1-10; Colossians 1:24-28; Luke 10:38-42

Dear friends,

The second assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council was held in Sydney last week. Below is an edited version of a statement accepted as "A Final Word from the Second Assembly":

Gathered by God, and called together by the Church in the name of Christ Jesus, the members of the Plenary Council have sought to be faithful to their commission to listen to and hear "what the Spirit is saying to the churches". Some moments of this second assembly have been calm and harmonious, others tense and difficult. But every moment has been blessed; the entire week has been grace-filled, though never a cheap grace. The Holy Spirit has been both comforter and disrupter. Throughout the assembly, diverse views and approaches were named, occasionally appearing to be irreconcilable. At a pivotal juncture in the assembly, some of these differences helped move the Council from having a process to being-in process; from following an agenda to following the Holy Spirit into the unknown. Not only did this moment overturn the timetable and the order of proceedings; it also meant that we had to address strongly-felt emotions. The days that followed established new patterns of listening and dialogue, which are nascent but real. We trust that the God who overturned our smooth predictabilities and led us into new territory will continue to open up the pathway before us.

We now go forth no longer considering statutes or regulations but our common life of grace. We remain committed not by decree or declaration, but by the power of the Spirit who gives inspiration and creativity to our Christian vocation.

We go forth acutely aware of the challenges ahead but renewed and encouraged by the promise of God's word, the wisdom of our tradition and the faithful companionship of all our sisters and brothers. We carry forth into the world the seeds of fresh possibilities, sown in a hidden yet abundant way by the great Sower of everything, who makes these seeds flourish in unexpected places for the sake of the Kingdom. We bear a rich heritage: the many ways in which the Catholic community has enhanced life in Australia through its care for the sick and marginalised, its commitment to education, and its advocacy for social justice, especially the needs of refugees and asylum seekers. We commit ourselves to seek and serve the human flourishing of all Australians, and to care for Earth, our common home, by cherishing, preserving, and healing the land. We have seen God at work in these days, comforting and disrupting in order to lead his people into a future of God's making. This has been a time of grace, and for that we give humble thanks. May God who has begun the good work in us bring it to fulfilment.

Farewell

Fr Thomas Ismoyo will return to Indonesia at the beginning of August, after five years studying in Brisbane and obtaining his Doctorate in Human Resource Management and celebrating Mass in the Cathedral Parish.

Fr Francis Fernandes has been appointed by the Archbishop the Caloundra Parish commencing on August 6. The next few weeks provide us with an opportunity to thank Fr. Francis for his ministry in the Cathedral parish. We wish him well in this time of transition to a new appointment in the Archdiocese.

There will be a combined farewell for Fr. Thomas and Fr. Francis on Sunday, July 31 at the 10am Mass at the Cathedral.

If you wish to donate to a thank you gift for Fr Thomas or Fr Francis, envelopes are available at the doors of the Cathedral.

A Statement from the Queensland Bishops concerning the reception of Holy Communion

In the light of the Queensland government's recent easing of COVID-19 restrictions, the Bishops of Queensland have been asked to consider a modification to the policy for the reception of Holy Communion.

Given that the COVID virus is still highly active and the pandemic is not over, the Bishops would prefer that the faithful continue to receive Holy Communion in the hand.

However, for those who wish to receive Holy Communion on the tongue, this is now permitted with appropriate precautions with regard to hygiene, especially by those distributing Holy Communion.

The Bishops would prefer that those wishing to receive Holy Communion on the tongue come forward after the rest of the faithful in the Communion procession.

St Vincent de Paul – Winter Appeal

Domestic violence is not an easy conversation to have, but it might just be the most important conversation we can have right now. In any home, any street, any suburb - domestic violence does not discriminate on race, age, marital status, class or gender.

Wearing of masks

For your own safe and the safety of others, during the current influenza season and with the COVID-19 virus still highly active, it is highly recommended that masks are worn whilst at Mass.

Journey Women's Discernment

Are you looking for a space to connect with other young women who are discerning their future? Journey is for young women discerning God's plan for their life. It's a place of sharing community together and being supported by others as you explore your vocation.

Facilitated by Sr Mel Dwyer, Journey meets one Sunday morning per month, usually for a bushwalk and brunch. All young adult women 18-40 yrs are welcome to come together and share the journey of discernment. This month's walk and brunch will be at the Bunyaville Conservation Park at Albany Creek on 24th July and Fr Nev Yun will be joining us on the walk to celebrate Mass. Acclamation (ICEL #1): We proclaim your death, O Lord,
and profess your resurrection,
until you come again. (CWBII 12a)

Agnus Dei ICEL Chant Mass (CWBII 17a)

Communion Organ music

Communion Hymn Lord, whose love in humble service
(CWBII 551)

Recessional Hymn Forth in the peace of Christ we go (CWBII 489)

Organ Voluntary Paeon – Kenneth Leighton (1929-1988)

Blessed Jesus, at your word
we are gathered all to hear you;
let our hearts and minds be stirred
now to seek and love and fear you;
by your gospel pure and holy teach us,
Lord, to love you solely.

All our knowledge, sense and sight
lie in deepest darkness shrouded, till your spirit breaks our night
with your beams of truth unclouded;
you alone to God can win us,
you must work all good within us.

Glorious Lord, yourself impart,
light of light from God proceeding;
open lips and ears and heart,
help us by your Spirit's leading;
hear the cry your Church now raises;
Lord, accept our prayers and praises.

Lord, whose love in humble service
bore the weight of human need,
who did on the cross, forsaken,
show us mercy's perfect deed:
we, your servants, bring the worship
not of voice alone, but heart;
consecrating to your purpose
ev'ry gift which you impart.

As we worship, grant us vision,
till your love's revealing light,
till the height and depth and greatness
dawns upon our quickened sight;
making known the needs and burdens
your compassion bids us bear,
stirring us to faithful service,
your abundant life to share.

Called from worship to your service,
forth in your dear name we go,
to the child, the youth, the aged,
love in living deeds to show.
Hope and health, good will and comfort,
counsel, aid, and peace we give,
that your children, Lord, in freedom
may your mercy know and live.

Forth in the peace of Christ we go;
Christ to the world with joy we bring;
Christ in our minds, Christ on our lips,
Christ in our hearts, the world's true king.
King of our hearts, Christ makes us kings;
kingship with him his servants gain;
with Christ, the Servant Lord of all,
Christ's world we serve to share Christ's reign.

Priests of the world, Christ sends us forth
the world of time to consecrate,
the world of sin by grace to heal,
Christ's world in Christ to recreate.

PLEASE TAKE THIS COPY OF THE BULLETIN
WITH YOU AT THE CONCLUSION OF MASS TODAY.
