

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 24 JULY 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Genesis 18:20-32; Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11 ;1-13

Dear friends,

This Sunday is the Second World Day for Grand-parents and the Elderly. Below is an extract of Pope Francis' message for today:

"In old age they will still bear fruit" (Ps 92:15). These words of the Psalmist are glad tidings, a true "gospel" that we can proclaim to all on this second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. They run counter to what the world thinks about this stage of life, but also to the attitude of grim resignation shown by some of us elderly people, who harbour few expectations for the future.

Many people are afraid of old age. They consider it a sort of disease with which any contact is best avoided. The elderly, they think, are none of their concern and should be set apart, perhaps in homes or places where they can be cared for, lest we have to deal with their problems. This is the mindset of the "throw-away culture", which leads us to think that we are somehow different from the poor and vulnerable in our midst, untouched by their frailties and separated from "them" and their troubles.

The Scriptures see things differently. A long life - so the Bible teaches - is a blessing, and the elderly are not outcasts to be shunned but living signs of the goodness of God who bestows life in abundance. Blessed is the house where an older person lives! Blessed is the family that honours the elderly!

Old age is not a time of life easily understood even by those of us who are already experiencing it. Even though it eventually comes with the passage of time, no one prepares us for old age, and at times it seems to take us by surprise. The more developed societies expend large sums on this stage of life without really helping people to understand and appreciate it; they offer healthcare plans to the elderly but not plans for living this age to the full. This makes it hard to look to the future and discern what direction to take. On the one hand, we are tempted to ward off old age by hiding our wrinkles and pretending to be forever young, while on the other, we imagine that the only thing we can do is bide our time, thinking glumly that we cannot "still bring forth fruit".

Old age is no time to give up and lower the sails, but a season of enduring fruitfulness: a new mission awaits us and bids us look to the future. This would be our own contribution to the revolution of tenderness, a spiritual and non-violent revolution in which I encourage you, dear grandparents and elderly persons, to take an active role. Dear grandparents, dear elderly persons, we are called to be artisans of the revolution of tenderness in our world! Let us become, as it were, poets of prayer: let us develop a taste for finding our own words. To all of you, and to your loved ones, I send my blessing and the assurance of my closeness and affection."

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 67

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

God in his holy dwelling place
Assembles those of every race.
He leads his people home at length,
Providing them with power and strength.

Let God arise and scatter those Who scorn his law, his ways oppose.
As fire melts wax and smoke recedes,
They perish when they see God's face.

Now let us adore the Father and sing
Our praise to the Son, our Saviour and King.
All praise to the Spirit who loves and remains,
And was from the first and will be for all days.

COMMUNION

Ave Verum Corpus Op. 2

Ave verum corpus, natum ex
Maria Virgine, vere passum, immolatum in cruce pro
homine. Cuius latus perforatum Vero fluxit aqua
et sanguine: esto nobis
præ gustatum in mortis examine. O clemens, O pie,
O dulcis Jesu, Fili Mariae.

Hail, true Body, born of the Virgin Mary, having truly suffered, sacrificed on the cross for mankind, from whose pierced side water and blood flowed: Be for us a foretaste of the Heavenly banquet in the trial of death! O sweet, O merciful, O Jesus, Son of Mary.

Music: Sir Edward Elgar (1857 -1934)

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 857

We stand for God! and for his glory;
the Lord supreme and God of all.
Against his foes, we raise his standard;
around the cross we hear his call.

Refrain *Strengthen our faith, Redeemer;
guard us when danger is nigh;
to you we pledge our lives and service;
for God we live, for God we'll die,
to thee we pledge our lives and service,
for God we live, for God we die.*

We stand for God! Jesus our Master has died for us with love untold;
his law divine and truth unchanging
in this our land their place must hold. Refrain

We stand for God! In ages olden he placed "The Cross" our stars beside;
Oh, may our land, gracious and golden,
be faithful to the Crucified! Refrain

OFFERTORY MOTET

O sacrum convivium in quo
Christus sumitur: recolitur
memoria passionis eius:
mens impletur gratia: et futuræ gloriæ nobis pignus datur. Alleluia.

O sacred banquet in which Christ is consumed; the memory of his passion is contemplated;
the mind is filled with grace;
and a pledge of future glory is given to us! Alleluia.

Music: Olivier Messiaen (1908 – 1992)

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him for he is your health and salvation.
All you who hear, now to his altar draw near;
join in profound adoration.

Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at the altar.
Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter.
Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast,
victims with him on the altar.

Praise to the Lord, who will prosper our work and defend us;
surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend us;
ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now in praises before him!
Let the Amen sound from his people again,
now as we worship before him.

Refrain: Sing praise to the Lord all our days.
God's chosen people now bless his holy name.

Forgiving our offences
you crown us with your love.
From ev'ry depth you lift us,
to share your life above.

Refrain

As far as earth from heaven,
as far as east from west,
you put our sins behind us,
you comfort the oppressed.

Refrain

Lord, you are slow to anger, compassionate and kind,
with tender love you guard us,
as father treats his child.

Refrain

Now thank we all our God
with hearts and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom the world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms
has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God
through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us;
Lord, keep us in your grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
Who reigns in highest heaven,
To Father and to Son
and Spirit now be given:
the one eternal God,
whom heav'n and earth adore;
who ever was, is now,
and shall be evermore.
