

NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 7 AUGUST 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Wisdom 18:6-9; Hebrews 11:1-2; 8-12; Luke 12:32-48

Dear Friends,

Following a couple of years absence due to COVID-19, this year we welcome the EKKA festival back in Brisbane. This event is very famous among Queenslanders, so much so that some said you are not Queenslanders, if you haven't gone to the EKKA! The EKKA is a home to Queenslanders. With a number of activities involving many people, organisations and even farming animals, the EKKA brings the city and the country together to share the richness of this land and to maintain the tradition of our local custom. More than a show, the EKKA is a celebration: of agriculture, of thanksgiving, and of life.

To some extent, some characters of the EKKA festival also occur in the Eucharist, our source of life. Like the EKKA for Queenslanders, Eucharist forms and strengthens our identity as Catholics. It gathers everyone to the same place, listen to the same Gospel, and share the same joy. Eucharist is also a celebration of life and thanksgiving for all the blessings we receive from God. However, unlike the EKKA, in the Eucharist we have Jesus as the central figure and fountain of God's love. He gathers us around the table to hear His words and share the heavenly banquet with Him.

In today's gospel, Jesus calls his disciples to be watchful and vigilant in preparing themselves for the coming of the Kingdom of God and the final judgement. Along with other passages in the gospel which address the theme of the end of time, today's gospel was written under strong perceptions among the early believers of the imminent second coming of Jesus.

However, this warning is not intended to frighten us! Rather it calls us to always live out our faith consistently, and therefore, we are always ready to welcome God and do His will.

The calling to be watchful and vigilant is an opportunity for us to see how our faith is expressed in our daily lives, for example, making time to go to a Mass. We are called to be vigilant and to live out the Eucharist so that it won't become a routine and without-soul-activity. We are called to be vigilant by not seeing the Eucharist as a mere a show with priests and ministers performing their part, while we are passively watching. We are called to be watchful to see the Eucharist as a gift and a moment of transformation. It is never only for our spiritual gain, but it must bring good fruits to our neighbours. The Eucharist transforms us to be an inclusive Church that promote collaboration with others in building a better world. It makes the Church a home for everyone.

Just like the EKKA is a home for all the Queenslanders, we hope to make our Church and community a home for all who thirst for God and long to meet Him. Lastly, I also want to say thank you to all people of the Cathedral of St Stephen, St Patrick's Fortitude Valley, and St Joseph's Kangaroo Point and St Benedict's East Brisbane, who made me feel at home in Brisbane for the past 5.5 years. You all have enriched my life.

Till we meet again.

Solemnity of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Celebrated at 10.00am on Monday, 8 August

Cathedral of St Stephen, Brisbane

Archbishop of Brisbane, Mark Coleridge invites you to a special celebration of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop, patron of the Archdiocese, on her feast day, Monday 8 August. Mass will be celebrated at 10:00am in the Cathedral followed by morning tea in the surrounding grounds. Please note: Reconciliation will be held from 1:00-1:30pm & 4:30-5:00pm. There will be no Adoration or Benediction.

Ekka Holiday

Wednesday 10 August is the public holiday for the Brisbane Exhibition. Mass will be celebrated at 8:00am only.

National Vocation Awareness Week, celebrated August 7-14

AUGUST 7 - 14, 2022

2022 is an annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in Australia dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, consecrated life and married life through prayer and education. It is also a time to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations.

Jubilee Pipe Organ

The repairs to the Jubilee Pipe requires the Cathedral closing for a period of hours on Tuesday 9 and Thursday 11 August. During these couple of days, the 10:00am Mass, Adoration and Benediction will be held in the Chapel. Reconciliation will be held in the Cathedral. As Wednesday is the Exhibition Holiday the Cathedral will be closed following the 8:00am Mass.

Safeguarding Surveys

The protection and wellbeing of children and vulnerable adults is at the core of Church mission, and setting the right approach to safeguarding is important. The thoughts and views of children and the Church community are essential in helping shape that approach. The Archdiocese has prepared two short safeguarding surveys to help gather feedback from children and the Church community. The surveys can be completed on a computer, laptop, tablet or mobile phone.

Online Child Safeguarding Survey (5 - 12 years)

Click on the link or the QR code to take the short (8 questions) online Child Safeguarding Survey. The survey is seeking information from children aged 5 to 12 years.

** Parents and Guardians may wish to assist children in completing the survey and explore their responses if needed.

Online Parish Safeguarding Survey (Adults)

Click on the link or the QR code to take the short (10 questions) online Parish Safeguarding Survey. This survey is seeking information from parish workers and parish congregations/communities, and should take less than 1 minute to complete.

The survey is completely anonymous and the parish will not be identified.

To provide general feedback on safeguarding use the dedicated feedback email address: safeguardingaob@bne.catholic.net.au

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 73

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

O Lord, recall your covenant,
Do not forsake the meek and poor.
Arise, O Lord, and judge your cause;
Remember those whose search endures.

O God, why do you cast us off?
Why does your anger blaze and smoke
Against the sheep of your dear flock,
Your own, adopted long ago?

Remember Zion, where you dwelt.
Direct your steps; behold and see
The desolation by your foes,
Your temple, ruined utterly.

To God, the Triune One, we raise
Eternal songs of joyful praise,
O Father, Son, and Paraclete,
We praise your name in word and deed.

COMMUNION MOTET Midday Mass

May the road rise to meet you, may the wind be always at your back, may the sun shine warm upon your face; may the rain fall soft upon your field, and until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow of his hand.

May the God of all hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope of the Holy Spirit.

Music: Mark Schweizer (1956-2019)

Refrain In faith and hope and love with joyful trust we move towards our Father's home above.

Christ, our star, our map, our road
To the Father's high abode. Refrain

Christ, our bread along the way;
Christ, our rescue when we stray. Refrain

Christ, our shelter, Christ our friend,
Our beginning and our end. Refrain

Christ, our hope and our reward
Our redeemer and our Lord. Refrain

---

Refrain Keep in mind that Jesus Christ has died for us and is risen from the dead.
He is our saving Lord, he is joy for all ages.

1. If we die with the Lord,
we shall live with the Lord.
If we endure with the Lord,
we shall reign with the Lord. Refrain

2. In him all our sorrow,
in him all our joy.
In him hope of glory,
in him all our love. Refrain

3. In him our redemption,
in him all our grace.
In him our salvation,
in him all our peace. Refrain

---

Holy Father, God of might,
throned amid the hosts of light,
take our life, our strength, our love,
King of earth and heav'n above.

Hear the songs your people raise,
songs of joyful thanks and praise,
calling all created things
to adore you, King of kings.

Christ, be with us as we go,
let this blind world see and know,
burning in our lives, the sight
of its only saving light.

So will all exult your name,
and your kingship all proclaim,
heav'n and earth in unity
praise the blessed Trinity.
