

21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C – 21 AUGUST 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Isaiah 66:18-21; Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13; Luke 13:22-30

We are called to be the face, hands and heart of Christ in our communities. Every day, God showers us with blessings so that we will have gifts to share.

Through your kindness and generosity, we unite as a Catholic community to reach out to serve others - the homeless, the marginalised, the elderly, our future priests in formation and families in dire circumstances.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane is a vibrant and dynamic Church - nowhere is this more visible than in the cooperative effort of the Annual Catholic Campaign. The Campaign supports vital ministries around South East Queensland and relies on the generosity of our parishioners.

Thank you for your generous support - your gift is precious, and we truly appreciate all you do to grow our community through the Annual Catholic Campaign. The Annual Catholic Campaign reaches out to care for those in our communities who need our care and support most, and you are encouraged to support it again this year. The Campaign reminds us that we are part of the larger Church. Our parishes work together to support vital ministries and services.

Funds raised will support ministries that directly impact this parish, such as:

Training future priests

Give future priests the support they need to answer God's call to priesthood and stay the course. Your gift ensures the future of our faith.

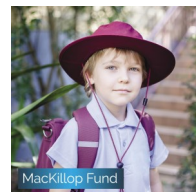

Caring for elderly priests when they become frail and unwell,

Your gift ensures our elderly priests have the support they need to retire with dignity; knowing they have a community of the faithful invested in their wellbeing.

Helping struggling families access a Catholic education

You give children living in hardship the love and care of a Catholic school community. With your support, these young people have access to a quality

Catholic education.

Caring for those suffering physically and emotionally

Create an inclusive society where those in dire circumstances are supported and empowered to create a future without fear or violence.

Please put your donation inside the envelope provided in the Cathedral and St Patrick's, so it remains separate from the parish collection.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 85: 1-4

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

Incline your ear O Lord,
And listen when I pray.
Preserve your servant who Confides in you all day.
Have mercy, Lord, and hear my plight,
My soul cries out by day and night.

Give answer to my prayer,
And listen to my plight.
When I am ill distressed
I call you day and night,
Because I know with certainty
That you will always answer me.

Psalm 40

Expectans expectavi Dominum, et respexit me: et exaudivit deprecationem
meam, et immisit in os meum
canticum novum, hymnum

*With expectation I have waited for the Lord, and he has cast his look upon me; he has heard my supplication and he has put a new canticle into my mouth,
a song to our God.*

Mass for Four Voices – William Byrd (1539/1543-1623)

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Ps 103: 13, 14, 15

De fructu operum tuorum, Domine, satiabitur terra: ut educas panem de terra, et vinum laetificet cor hominis :
ut exhilaret faciem in oleo, et panis cor hominis confirmet.

*With the fruit of your work,
O Lord, is the earth satisfied.
You make bread grow from the earth and wine to encourage the heart of man, so that oil makes his face to shine and bread*

COMMUNION HYMN

CWBII 624

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea,
and forgiveness in his justice
sealed for us on Calvary.
There is plentiful redemption
through the blood that Christ has shed;
there is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader
than the measures of our mind;
and the heart of the Eternal
is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
by false limits of our own,
and we magnify his strictness
with a zeal he will not own.

Restless souls, why do you scatter
like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why do you wander
from a love so true and deep?
If our love were but more simple
we should take him at his word;
and our lives would be illumined
by the goodness of the Lord.

OFFERTORY MOTET

Psalm 145:2

Lauda, anima mea,
Dominum: laudabo Dominum in vita mea:
psallam Deo meo, quamdiu (fu)ero, alleluia.

*Praise the Lord, O my soul:
while I live will I praise the Lord: I will sing praises unto my God while I have being, alleluia.*

Music: Gregor Aichinger (c1565-1628)

In Christ there is no east or west,
in him no south or north,
but one great family bound by love
throughout the whole wide earth

In him shall true hearts ev'rywhere their high communion find,
his service is the golden cord
close binding human kind.

Join hands, disciples in the faith,
what e'er your race might be;
ho serve each other in God's love
are surely kin to me

In Christ now meet both east and west,
in him meet south and north;
all Christly souls are one in him
throughout the whole wide earth.

There's a wideness in God's mercy
like the wideness of the sea,
and forgiveness in his justice
sealed for us on Calvary.

There is plentiful redemption
through the blood that Christ has shed;
there is joy for all the members
in the sorrows of the Head.

For the love of God is broader
than the measures of our mind;
and the heart of the Eternal
is most wonderfully kind.

But we make his love too narrow
by false limits of our own,
and we magnify his strictness
with a zeal he will not own.

Restless souls, why do you scatter
like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why do you wander
from a love so true and deep?

If our love were but more simple
we should take him at his word;
and our lives would be illumined
by the goodness of the Lord.

As we gather at your table,
as we listen to your word,
help us know, O God, your presence
let our hearts and minds be stirred.

Nourish us with sacred story
till we claim it as our own;
teach us through this holy banquet
how to make Love's vict'ry known.

Turn our worship into witness
in the sacrament of life;
send us forth to love and serve you,
bringing peace where there is strife.
Give us, Christ, your great compassion
to forgive as you forgave;
may we still behold your image
in the world you died to save.

Grant us vision, gracious Spirit to seek guests to share that feast
where triumphant love will welcome
those who had been last and least.
There no more will envy blind us
nor will pride our peace destroy,
as we join with saints and angels
to repeat the sounding joy.
