

22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C – 28 AUGUST 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Sirach 3:17-20, 28-29; Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24; Luke 14:1, 7-14

Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse

In their Social Justice Statement for 2022-2023, Respect: Confronting Violence and Abuse, the Australian Bishops add their voice to global campaigns to confront and call out destructive attitudes and behaviours that lead to life-limiting and long-lasting impacts on many vulnerable members of our families, churches, and society.

The bishops invite us to investigate the scope, drivers, and enablers of abuse. They invite us to familiarise ourselves with programmes that promote the transformation of individuals and structures and to 'take responsibility for changing the cultural factors in our Church and society that have allowed violence against women and children to flourish.'

The voices of victims and survivors of violence and abuse are woven together with scripture, social research, and our rich Catholic social justice teachings. This theological reflection also invites us to contemplate the ways in which themes within our Christian tradition can be misused to justify, legitimise, or normalise violence, such as forgiveness, submission, and leadership.

Catholic families, communities and organisations are encouraged to engage with the challenging material in the Social Justice Statement. The Statement needs to be read slowly and reflectively, individually, and collectively for its potential to be maximised. We pray that possibilities for response and action will become apparent when the Statement is considered in an open and supportive context. We invite you to practice self-compassion and awareness of the needs of those in our midst who are struggling as the implications of the Statement flow from your prayerful and purposeful deliberations.

President of the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference, Archbishop Costelloe introduces the 2022-23 Social Justice Statement - Respect: Confronting violence and abuse : <https://bit.ly/SJS22-23>.

If you didn't get a chance to make a gift last week, there is still time. If you took the envelope home, please pop it in the mail or leave it here on your way out after service.

Your tax-deductible gift will be put straight to work by funding the vital Catholic agencies in our local community.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to approach me after Mass.

Thank you again for your time and generosity.

Our wellbeing is interwoven with the wellbeing of the Earth and we rejoice in this opportunity to safeguard our common home and all who share it. This year, the theme for the season is Listen to the Voice of Creation.

Each year, we join with our Christian brothers and sisters to recognise the importance of, and celebrate together, our care for our common home. This year's event is hosted by the Albert Street Uniting Church, and Christians from all denominations are invited to gather together in unity to celebrate this Season of Creation - Listen to the Voice of Creation.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 85: 3, 5 & 1

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

Have mercy on me, O my Lord,
I cry all day to you.
For you, O Lord, are good and just,
Forgiving, pouring steadfast love
On all who call on you.

Incline your ear to me, O Lord,
Despondent and in need.
Sustain me for I trust in you,
And save your faithful servant, who
Depends on you indeed.

Give answer to my humble prayer,
O Lord, when I implore.
In days of my distress I plead,
Because you always answer me.
Whose deeds compare to yours?

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation!
O my soul, praise him for he is your health and salvation.
All you who hear, now to his altar draw near;
join in profound adoration.

Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at the altar.
Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter.
Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast,
victims with him on the altar.

Praise to the Lord, who will prosper our work and defend us;
surely his goodness and mercy here daily attend us;
ponder anew what the Almighty can do,
who with his love will befriend us.

Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in us adore him!
All that has life and breath, come now in praises before him!
Let the Amen sound from his people again,
now as we worship before him.

1. Christians, let us love one another,
as we share the true living bread.
Jesus is our God and our brother,
with his flesh and blood we are fed.

Refrain Ev'ry one who loves is born of God.

1. Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people,
light for the world to see.

Refrain Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in your Church gathered today.

2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has pow'r to save us.
Make us your living voice.

Refrain

3. Longing for food, many are hungry.
Longing for water, many still thirst.
Make us your bread, broken for others,
shared until all are fed.
