

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 16TH OCTOBER 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Exodus 17:8-13; 2 Timothy 3:14-4:2; Luke 18:1-8

Dear friends,

'Amazing Grace' is one of the most well-known hymns of all time. Perhaps less known is the story of the hymn's composer, John Newton (1725-1807), and what inspired its composition. Newton had for many years been a slave ship captain during a time when 80% of the British Empire's foreign income came from the slave trade. His conversion to Christianity and the subsequent shame and repentance he felt over his former way of life led him to pen those now very familiar lyrics immortalised in the hymn for which he is most remembered. Newton eventually became an evangelical Anglican minister and a noted preacher, hymn composer and social justice advocate. His influence spread significantly beyond his London parish, and was most famously felt by a young and promising parliamentarian, William Wilberforce (1759-1833) who, like Newton, was also a convert to Christianity. Newton mentored Wilberforce for many years in their shared passion for the formal abolition of the slave trade. Together they laid the social and legal groundwork to outlaw slave trading by the Empire. It was 20 long and arduous years of opposition, persecution, prayer and tests of faith before they saw the British Parliament pass the 'Slave Trade Act' in 1807, which restricted slavery. Newton died just 3 days later. However, it would be another 26 years of advocacy, hard work and prayer by Wilberforce and his supporters before the parliament would eventually pass the definitive outlawing of slavery with the 'Abolition of Slavery' act, in 1833 - a moment 48 years in the making (1787-1833). Newton's and Wilberforce's unparalleled contributions in securing this unprecedented outcome would in a few short years see close to 1 million slaves emancipated. It was not just Newton & Wilberforce's shared faith that motivated and sustained them - but also the virtue of perseverance in the face of so much opposition. In today's gospel we hear the parable of 'The Widow and the Unjust Judge' - a lesson in persevering in prayer. I suspect Newton, Wilberforce and their many Christian supporters found solace and strength in this parable, trusting that every prayer achieves a victory in God's own way and good time. We are all able to take comfort from the Lord's assurances that our prayers are always heard, and be inspired to 'pray continually and never lose heart.'

Bring Hope To Neela & Her Family—Catholic Appeal

Many families in Emdibir are subsistence farmers, and distressingly, many are unable to put enough food on the table each day. We hope you will take this opportunity to make an incredible impact for those in need.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 16:8, 1

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

I call upon you, Lord,
 For you will answer me.
 I pray that you will hear my words;
 Give ear, Lord, to my plea.
 My Saviour, keep me as
 The apple of your eye;
 Beneath the shadow of your wings
 In safety let me lie.
 I plead my innocence;
 Give heed, Lord, to my cry,
 And listen to my prayer, which comes
 From lips that do not lie.
 Lord, vindicate me soon,
 That you may see the right;
 I pray you, try and weigh my heart,
 And search my soul at night.
