

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C – 6TH NOVEMBER 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: 2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14; 2 Thessalonians 2:16 – 3:5; Luke 20:27, 34-38

Dear friends,

You will notice that the Cathedral is lit in red during the month of November. It is one way in which we draw attention to the persecution of Christians throughout the world. On Wednesday, 23rd November (5:10pm), the Archbishop will celebrate Mass for persecuted Christians. Persecution is any form of hostility experienced as a result of practicing Christian faith. This can look different for the hundreds of millions of believers who face persecution every day. For some, it is a denial of basic needs like clean water, food and healthcare, because of their faith in Jesus. Or rejection from their non-Christian family and community. For others, Christian persecution is acts of physical violence, imprisonment, or even death. One in seven Christians worldwide are persecuted for their faith. More than 360 million Christians worldwide suffer very high or extreme levels of persecution and discrimination for their faith.

There are two main ways Christians experience persecution: violence and pressure. The top ten countries which were identified as the places of greatest violence and pressure are: Afghanistan; North Korea; Somalia; Libya; Yemen; Eritrea; Nigeria; Pakistan; Iran; and India. During this month of November, let us offer our prayer support and also raise awareness of the plight of Christians as the struggle to live and practice their faith on a daily basis:

Lord Jesus Christ, as the Good Shepherd, You call all people to yourself.

You also foresaw that following the path of the gospel would be met with opposition.

Be near those who suffer daily because of their commitment to you.

Through them, you continue your passion for the redemption of the world.

Give them the grace to carry the cross with you.

Grant us all strength and courage to willingly follow you, regardless of the cost of discipleship.

Help us support our sisters and brothers in their need, so that they may know that all who call themselves Christian journey with them and that they are not abandoned and alone.

Fill us with your merciful love, that we may also bless our enemies and forgive them.

May our witness show forth your presence in the world and may you lead us through faith to fullness of life in You. Amen.

ENTRANCE SONG

CWBII 457

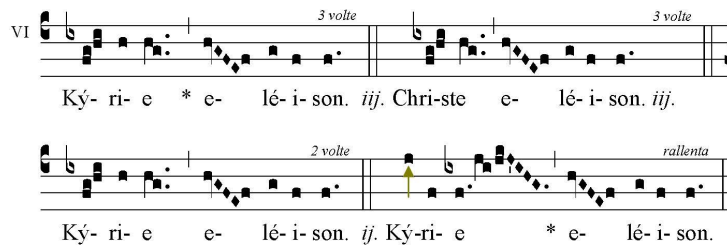

Blessed Jesus, at your word
we are gathered all to hear you;
let our hearts and minds be stirred
now to seek and love and fear you;
by your gospel pure and holy teach us,
Lord, to love you solely.

All our knowledge, sense and sight
lie in deepest darkness shrouded, till your spirit breaks our night
with your beams of truth unclouded;
you alone to God can win us,
you must work all good within us.

Glorious Lord, yourself impart,
light of light from God proceeding;
open lips and ears and heart,
help us by your Spirit's leading;
hear the cry your Church now raises;
Lord, accept our prayers and praises.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Revelation 1:5, 6

OFFERTORY MOTET Your Hands, O Lord, in Days of Old

Your hands, O Lord, in days of old were strong to heal and save; They triumphed over pain and death, o'er darkness and the grave. to you they went, the blind, the mute, the palsied and the lame, The leper set apart and shunned, the sick and those in shame.

And then your touch brought life and health, gave speech and strength and sight; And youth renewed, with health restored, claimed you, the Lord of light. And so, O Lord, be near to bless, almighty now as then, In every street, in every home, in every troubled friend.

O be our mighty healer still, O Lord of life and death; Restore and strengthen, soothe and bless with your almighty breath, n hands that work and eyes that see, your healing wisdom pour, That whole and sick and weak and strong may praise you evermore.

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
