

33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR C – 13TH NOVEMBER 2022

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Malachi 3:19-20; 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12; Luke 21:5-19

Dear friends,

25 years has passed since my ordination to priestly ministry. In many ways, "25" is only a number, insignificant in itself. In other ways, it is a moment in my personal story that provides an opportunity to pause and recall the various threads that have been woven into my memory and experience. Anniversaries of any kind are only as meaningful as we want to make them, and what has become meaningful to me this year is my sense of profound gratitude. If the truth be known, and if I had been left to my own devices, I would have stumbled from one stumbling episode to another – and yes, that certainly would be one accurate way of describing the last 25 years. However, my sense of profound gratitude is grounded in the realisation that I haven't be left to my own devices. Against the usual patterns of own personal preferences, I have said "yes" to every opportunity that has been given to me. Not all of those "yeses" have been easy, but they have all been graced. Gratitude is always the fruit of grace received, unmerited and unasked.

25 years ago, on a hot, humid night in November, standing in the Cathedral of St. Stephen before Archbishop Bathurst and surrounded by the presbyterate of Brisbane and the people of God, I never dreamed of the course that my life as a priest has taken me on or the adventures that have been part of that course. Despite various emotional and spiritual valleys at times, these years have been a grace and a gift.

The greatest gift to me has been relationships. I have become a profound believer in this simple pilgrim's truth: God always provides you with the companions that you need. When I think of places, I think of people: family, friends, colleagues, parishioners, strangers. Any road in life, any vocation, is impossible and unbearable without the well-springs of friendship and, in particular on this day, I give thanks for all those who have helped me continue the journey. Whatever might be "best" in me is only due to the goodness, kindness, generosity, honesty and commitment of others. All of these qualities, and all of these relationships, come from God. Ordained ministry is indeed a wonderful privilege but it also a vocation that takes a whole lifetime to grow into, so I remain a "work under construction", but aren't we all.

Thank you to the Cathedral staff and this community for being part of my story and allowing me to be part of yours. Thank you also for your generosity to me during this time. I only pray that, through God's grace, I am able to offer something in return, however humble, for the sake of the gospel.

ENTRANCE SONG

Jer 29:11, 12, 14; Psalm 84

At the conclusion of the Introit the assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

God proclaims for all to hear:
 "Listen to my wisdom:
 I consider peace for you
 And not your affliction.
 When you call upon my name,
 I will hear and help you.
 I will bring you home from lands
 Where your captors held you."

Lord, you favoured once your land,
 Brought back Jacob's fortunes
 And forgave your people's sins,
 Pardoned their transgressions.
 You withdrew from them your wrath,
 Turning from your hot anger.
 Now restore us, saving God;
 Let your rage not linger.

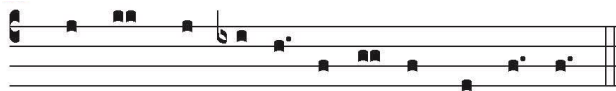

Mercy, love, and faithfulness
 Have met in God's presence;
 Peace and justice have embraced,
 Have become one essence.
 Faithfulness springs from the earth;
 Justice rains profusely
 And shall walk before our God;
 Peace shall follow closely.

Recessional Hymn The voice of God (CWBII 621)

When the King shall come again,
all his pow'r revealing;
splendour shall announce his reign,
life and joy and healing;
earth no longer in decay,
hope no more frustrated;
this is God's redemption day
longingly awaited.

In the desert trees take root,
fresh from God's creation;
plants and flow'rs and sweetest fruit
join the celebration,
rivers spring up from the earth,
barren lands adorning.
Valleys, this is your new birth;
mountains, greet the morning!

Strengthen feeble hands and knees,
fainting hearts be cheerful!
God, who comes for such as these seeks and saves the fearful.
Deaf ears hear, the silent tongues
sing away their weeping;
blind eyes, see the lifeless ones
walking, running, leaping.

There God's highway shall be seen
where no roaring lion,
nothing evil or unclean
walks the road to Zion:
ransomed people homeward bound
all your praises voicing,
see your Lord with glory crowned,
share in his rejoicing!

Christ is the heav'nly food
that gives to eve'ry famished soul
new life and strength, new joy and hope and faith to make them whole.
We all are made for God alone,
without whom we are dead;
no food suffices for the soul
but Christ, the living bread.

Christ is the unity that binds
in one the near and far;
for we who share his life divine
his living body are.
On earth and in the realms beyond,
one fellowship are we;
and at his table we are knit
in mystic unity.

The voice of God goes out through all the world:
his glory speaks across the universe.
The great King's herald cries from star to star:
With pow'r, with justice, Christ will be the way.

The Lord has said: "Receive my messenger,
My promise to the world, my pledge made flesh,
A lamp to ev'ry nation, light from light":
With pow'r, with justice, Christ will be the way.

The broken reed he will not trample down,
Nor set his heel upon the dying flame,
He binds the wounds, and heals with his strong hand:
With pow'r, with justice, Christ will be the way.

OFFERTORY MOTET (Midday Mass) Mark 11: 24

De profundis clamavi ad te, Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.
Domine; Domine, exaudi
vocem meam.

Music: Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525-1594)
