

4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A – 29TH JANUARY 2023

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13; 1 Corinthians 1:26-31; Matthew 5:1-12

Dear friends,

We have just celebrated Australia Day, with the accompanying list of Australia Day honours recipients. In 2017, Sr. Anne Gardiner was named Senior Australian of the Year. She is a member of the Daughters of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, and has worked on Bathurst Island in the Northern Territory among the Tiwi People for over 50 years. She began her acceptance speech by wiping the tears from her eyes, and then claimed the award, not for her, but for her whole order. She spoke, in part, about leadership. Sr. Anne said, "Our identity is in who we are, not what we are." Then she went on to speak of her experience working with the Tiwi People. Sr. Anne said, "There is not only one way to be a leader. There is not only one language through which to express leadership. There is not only one cultural lens through to view leadership. It has been my joy to witness and experience Tiwi people manage organisations, conduct schools and health clinics, train others in a range of areas and administer businesses. They have done it too, while having to confront substance abuse, suicide, domestic violence and other signs of a community in stress." Our western culture places a lot of emphasis on the individual qualities of leadership and, as a result, we place a great deal of expectation upon our leaders. Often enough, these expectations are unrealistic. We want visionaries with the common touch; we want people who inspire us but not ask us to change; we want compassionate leaders who are hard-nosed and uncompromising. We want leaders to be all things to all people.

If you were to look at a list of attributes for secular leadership, I suspect that they would have very little in common with Jesus' list of virtues in the Beatitudes. Last week, we heard Jesus' summons to Peter and Andrew, James and John, to come and follow. This week, Jesus says to us all, "Go and do. Go and be leaders. Be leaders among your family, friends, schools, work, in your local community. This is how you do it," he says. Sr. Anne reminds us that there is more than one way to be a leader; and that a leader is simply someone who helps cultivate a better world – a new way of seeing and acting and being. Individually and communally, this is the call of Christian leadership in the world. As the disciples discovered, spending time with Jesus is the best training for leadership. Fr. Anthony

Servers are trained and rostered according to need for the

occur throughout the year in the Cathedral.

The Altar Servers ministry is a significant service and contribution to the Church. For school or tertiary students, certified recognition for the time and service spent in this important ministry is also available.

We would love to hear from you so please record your expression of interest through the Cathedral Office (email:

Archdiocesan Centre for Catholic Formation Catholic Foundations module 1: Catholic Theology in Context

The Archdiocesan Centre for Catholic Formation's four core modules entitled "Catholic Foundations" are designed to draw Catholics into the fullness of the Catholic life and provide faith formation for adults. The experience will engage both the head and the heart, so participants grow in knowledge and the lived experience of Catholic faith. The modules will be spread across four semesters in 2023 and 2024 and cover theology, scripture, sacraments and mission. To find out more or to register for this first module, head to catholicformation.au

1. You shall cross the barren desert,
but you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety
though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words in foreign lands
and all will understand.
You shall see the face of God and live.

Refrain Be not afraid. I go before you always.
Come follow me, and I will give you rest.

2. If you pass through raging waters
in the sea, you shall not drown.
If you walk amid the burning flames,
you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the pow'r of hell
and death is at your side,
Know that I am with you through it all. Refrain
3. Blessed are your poor,
for the kingdom shall be theirs.
Blest are you that weep and mourn,
for one day you shall laugh.
And if wicked tongues insult and hate you
all because of me,
Blessed, blessed are you! Refrain

---

Blessed are the poor in spirit
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven,
blessed are the gentle for they shall possess the land.

Blessed are they, that hunger and thirst after justice,
blessed are they that suffer gladly for justice' sake.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted,
blessed are the clean of heart for they shall see God.

Blessed are you when they revile and harm you,
and speak all evil against you untruly for my sake.

Blessed are the merciful for mercy they will find,
blessed are the peacemakers
for they shall be called God's children.

Christ, our Lord, the Prince of ages,
Christ, the nations' glorious King,
whom we praise with exultation,
saints and angels answering,
to your throne with true devotion,
hearts and minds and senses bring.

Come, O Lord, and claim your kingdom,
rebel hearts your grace can gain;
bend the stubborn will of rulers
who from homage still refrain:
in the home as in the city
be supreme, O Christ, and reign.

On our own dear land, Australia,
let the light of mercy shine,
that, in holy Church united,
all may know the saving sign:
Christ, up on the cross up lifted,
drawing all with love divine.
