

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

YEAR A – 14TH MAY 2023

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Acts 8:5-8; 14-17; 1 Peter 3:15-18; John 14:15-21

Dear friends,

As we continue our exploration of Archbishop Mark's apostolic priorities, we hear in today's first reading, Philip goes down to the city of Samaria to proclaim the Messiah to them. The result is "great joy in that city." If the Gospel is not good news, then the Gospel hasn't been preached. If the acceptance of the Gospel doesn't result in great joy, then the Gospel hasn't been received. Sadly, throughout history, the preaching of the Gospel has often been mixed up with political power. The good news that would set the captives free came with a new political power that would create a new kind of captivity. This tension can be recognised in Australian history and is addressed by the Archbishop's fifth apostolic priority: engaging anew with First Nations Peoples.

Archbishop Mark writes:

The injustice done to First Nations peoples in this country is a running sore at the heart of the nation. It is contemporary Australia's original sin... We need a genuinely new engagement of the Church with the First Nations peoples, especially in an Archdiocese like this where the Indigenous presence is strong. A new engagement will mean, first of all, listening to Indigenous voices, and believing that we can learn if we really listen. In the past, non-Indigenous Australia has struggled to believe that we could learn anything from First Nations peoples. They could learn from us, but not we from them. That has to change, both in the Church and in Australia more generally. Then the listening and learning need to lead to action.

The history of mistreatment of First Nations Peoples in Australia is sobering. Against the backdrop of these difficult facts, there are signs of hope, and the Church is getting involved. The Uluru Statement has been endorsed by the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference and the Archdiocese of Brisbane has adopted a Reconciliation Action Plan. Let us consider how we might contribute to this ministry of reconciliation and be part of God's renewal of this land .

Blessing Prayer for Mother's Day

God of Love,
we ask you to listen to our prayer.
God of Holy People,
of Sarah, Ruth and Rebekah;
God of holy Elizabeth, mother of John,
of Holy Mary, Mother of Jesus,
bend down Your ear to this request and bless all mothers.
Bless them with the strength of Your Spirit,
they who have taught their children how to stand and how to walk.
Bless them with the melody of Your love,
they who have shared how to speak,
how to sing and how to pray to You.
Bless them with a place at Your eternal dinner table,
they who have fed and nurtured the life that was formed within them while still helpless but embraced in their love.
Bless them today, now, in this lifetime,
with good things, with health.
Bless them with joy, love, laughter and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.
May they who carried life in their womb
be carried one day to Your divine embrace:
there, for all eternity, to rejoice with their family and friends.
May those women who have never borne children,
share their maternal gifts and know the joy of nurturing love.
This blessing and all graces, we pray,
descend upon the mothers of our families:
May the blessing of Almighty God come down and rest upon you;
in name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

A Message from the Archbishop

In the Archdiocese of Brisbane from Pentecost Sunday of this year (28 May) the pandemic dispensation will be withdrawn and the Sunday obligation will be restored, so that all of us, responding to the Risen Lord's call, may say with one heart and voice, "This is the day which the Lord has made: let us rejoice and be glad" (Psalm 118:24).

Finding the Heart of the Nation: The journey of the Uluru Statement towards Voice, Treaty, and Truth

Are you aware of the conversations happening around the Voice to Parliament but not really sure what it's all about? This session of the Laurel Blow Speaker Series will help you understand what's really being asked and navigate the noise that is surrounding the issue. Since the Uluru Statement from the Heart was formed in 2017, guest speaker Thomas Mayo has travelled around the country to promote its vision of a better future for Indigenous Australians. Through the story of his own journey and hearing the stories of others, Thomas taps into a deep sense of our shared humanity and makes clear what the Uluru Statement is and why it is so important.
Thursday 1 June, 10am- 12:30pm Guadete Centre, ACU, 1100 Nudgee Rd, Banyo RSVP: Monday 29 May You're invited to engage in this important conversation and listen with an open heart by registering now at: app.tickets.org.au/eb/LaurelBlow

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 98

At the conclusion of the Introit, the assembly responds as with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

Come, spread the news with shouts of joy,
Let it be heard with every cry:
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Speak to the ends of earth with glee
The Lord has set his people free.
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia!

All people of the earth, rejoice,
Praise God, and raise a joyful voice.
Alleluia, alleluia.
Sing psalms and glorify his name,
Give joyful praises all the same.
Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia, alleluia! Alleluia.
To God, the Triune One, we raise
Eternal songs of joyful praise. Alleluia, alleluia,
O Father, Son, and Paraclete,
We praise your name in word and deed.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

COMMUNION HYMN

CWBII 626

"This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell among you all.
This is my will, that you should love
as I have shown that I love you.

There is no greater love than this:
to give your life to save one's friends.
You are my friends if you obey
what I command that you should do.

I call you now no longer slaves;
no slave knows all his master does.
I call you friends, for all I hear
my Father say you hear from me.
You chose not me, but I chose you,
that you should go and bear much fruit.
I chose you out that you in me
should bear much fruit that will abide.

All that you ask my Father dear
for my name's sake you shall receive.
This is my will, my one command,
that love should dwell in each, in all."

Communion Hymn Love divine, all loves excelling
(CWBII 552)

Love divine, all loves excelling,
joy of heav'n to earth come down,
fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
pure unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation,
enter ev'ry trembling heart.

Come, almighty to deliver,
let us all thy life receive;
suddenly return and never,
never more thy temples leave.
Thee we would be always blessing,
serve thee as thy hosts above,
pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation,
pure and spotless, let us be;
let us see thy great salvation,
perfectly in restored in thee:
changed from glory into glory,
till in heav'n we take our place,
till we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love and praise.

Recessional Hymn Alleluia! Alleluia! Hearts to heav'n and voices raise (CWBII 346)

Alleluia! Alleluia!
Hearts to heav'n and voices raise;
sing to God a hymn of gladness,
sing to God a hymn of praise.
He who on the cross a Victim,
for the world's salvation bled,
Jesus Christ, the King of glory,
now is risen from the dead.

Now the iron bars are broken,
Christ from death to life is born,
glorious life, and life immortal,
on this holy Easter morn.
Christ has triumphed, and we conquer
by his mighty enterprise;
we with him to life eternal
by his resurrection rise.

Alleluia! Alleluia!
Glory be to God on high;
Alleluia to the Saviour
who has won the victory;
Alleluia to the Spirit,
fount of love and sanctity;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
to the Triune Majesty.

Processional Hymn Where there is charity and love
(CWBII 638)

Refrain *Where there is charity and love,
there the love of God abides.*

1. The love of Christ has gathered us as one,
rejoice in him with joy which he imparts;
let us revere and love the living God
and love each other with unfeigning hearts. Refrain

2. And so when we are gathered here as one,
let quarrels die and envious rancour cease;
be our resolve all bitterness to shun
and in our midst be Christ, his love and peace. Refrain

3. Oh, lead us, Master, by your saving grace, to where the blessed glory in your sight;
there let us see and love you face to face,
gathered once more in everlasting light. Refrain
