

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR A – 25TH JUNE 2023

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

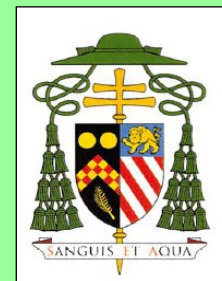

Readings for today: Jeremiah 20:10-13; Romans 5:12-15; Matthew 10:26-33

Dear friends,

This Sunday, and for a number of Sundays ahead, we will hear from the Letter of St. Paul to the Romans. Saint Paul's letter to the Romans is his most theological work, and often regarded as his most important. It is certainly his longest. There was an early Christian community in Rome, possibly dating from the time of Pentecost when the church first proclaimed the message of the Gospel. A Roman historian records that a number of Jews were expelled from Rome around 49AD for creating disturbances about a person named "Chrestus" which many believe refers to Christ. So there was a group of Jewish Christians living in the Imperial capital and Paul writes to them partly to enlist their support for his proposed mission to Spain, known as "the extremities of the West". Romans would have been more familiar with Spain than Paul, as he had only limited experience of the West, and its geography, customs or languages.

As one biblical scholar has noted, "To win their support Paul must first dispel the perception that he was overthrowing Judaism. This leads Paul to give a magisterial exposition of teaching on the Law and on salvation in Christ.... The Law gave only consciousness of sin, and by so doing intensified sin without providing the means to transcend sin. By contrast, in Romans, Paul presents Christ's work in two ways, as an act of cultic atonement (3:25) and as an act of obedience (5:12-21). Christ's perfect obedience undoes the disobedience of Adam or of the human race as a whole. By baptism the Christian is plunged into Christ's death so as to share Christ's risen life (6:1-11). In the Spirit not only the Christian but the whole world is reconciled to God and renewed (8:18-25). Free from the external restraint of the Law, the Christian is empowered by the indwelling of the Spirit." Over the coming weeks, we might pay close attention to the words of Paul in the second reading. Fr. Anthony

Farewell to Paul Kwong & Kimberley Chung

We are sad to farewell this Sunday, if only for a short time, two of our faithful and committed altar servers. Paul Kwong has been a regular server during week days, as well as on Saturdays and Sundays. Kimberley has been a significant member of our Sunday 10am serving team for a number of years. Both are heading overseas (one to south-east Asia and the other to Canada) for 12 months or so with work commitments.

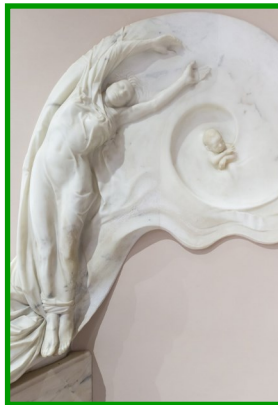

We thank them both for their service, as we wish them a bon voyage and we look forward to their return among us next year. May God bless them both in the adventures beyond these shores and reward them for their service here at home.

For Our Elders, Bobbi Lockyer
Where there is knowledge there are our Elders. Our Elders paved the pathways for us, taught us our knowledge, our history, they passed down their art, stories and wisdom. Our Elders are the foundation of our communities and role models for our children. With this poster I wanted to showcase how important our Elders are in passing down traditions and culture to our children and future.

Support for the Cathedral Parish

You may place your donations in the collection plate during the Offertory, "Tap & Go" at the doors of the church or donate on-line by scanning the QR Code which will direct you to the donation page on the Cathedral website.

EFTPOS machines also are available at the doors of the church and have the capacity to enable us to select the amount we wish to contribute. As we become an increasingly cashless society, this facility gives us the opportunity to continue to financially support the Cathedral and St Patrick's.

Your support for the Cathedral Parish is appreciated.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 46

At the conclusion of the Introit, a bell is sounded the assembly responds with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

Antiphon:

All peoples, clap your hands,
To God with joy now sing.
The Lord, the Awesome, the Most High,
O'er all the earth is King.

The Lord puts the nations down,
Subdues them under us;
He chose our heritage, the pride
Of Jacob, whom he loves.

God has gone up with shouts
Amid the trumpet's blast.
Sing praise to God our King, sing praise,
And let this music last.

The Lord rules over all,
He sits upon his throne.
All princes of the earth shall kneel
And honour him alone.

Processional Hymn This day God gives me
(CWBII 625)

This day God gives me strength of high heaven
sun and moon shining, flame in my hearth, flashing of lightning, wind in its swiftness,
deeps of the ocean, firmness of earth.

This day God sends me strength to sustain me,
might to uphold me, wisdom as guide.
Your eyes are watchful, your ears are list'ning,
your lips are speaking, friend at my side.

God's way is my way, God's shield is round me,
God's host defends me, saving from ill.
Angels of heaven, drive from me always all that would harm me, stand by me still.

Rising, I thank you, mighty and strong One,
king of creation, giver of rest,
firmly confessing Threeness of Persons, Oneness of Godhead, Trinity blest.

and how revere this wonderful gift,
so far surpassing hope or thought?

Refrain Sweet Sacrament, we thee adore;
Oh, make us love thee more and more.
Oh, make us love thee more and more.

2. Had I but Mary's sinless heart to love thee with, my dearest King, Oh, with what bursts of fervent praise thy goodness, Jesus, would I sing. Refrain

Recessional Hymn Joyful, joyful, we adore you
(CWBII 528)

Joyful, joyful, we adore you
God of glory, God of love;
hearts unfold like flow'rs before you op'ning to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness,
drive the dark of doubt away;
giver of immortal gladness,
fill us with the light of day!

All your works with joy surround you,
earth and heav'n reflect your rays,
stars and angels sing around you,
centre of unbroken praise;
field and forest, vale and mountain,
flow'ry meadow, flashing sea,
singing bird and flowing fountain,
praising you eternally.

Always giving and forgiving,
ever blessing, ever blest,
well-spring of the joy of living,
ocean-depth of happy rest!
Loving Father, Christ our brother,
let your love upon us shine;
teach us how to love each other,
lift us to the Joy Divine
