

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

YEAR B – 24 MARCH 2024

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Isaiah 50:4-7; Philippians 2:6-11; Mark 14:1-15:47

Dear friends,

Palm Sunday has been associated with peace marches and rallies for at least 50 years. These marches date back to rallies against the Vietnam War and also the promotion of nuclear disarmament. Their intention mirrors the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, which we recall liturgically on Palm Sunday. Today, at the beginning of the liturgy, we proclaim: Jesus entered in triumph into his own city, Jerusalem, to complete his work: to suffer, to die, and to rise again. With lively faith and devotion, let us recall this entry which began his saving work and follow him in his footsteps. United with him in his suffering on the cross, may we share his resurrection and new life.

So, is our faith and devotion “lively enough” to “follow in his footsteps and be united with him in his suffering on the cross” so that we may “share his resurrection and new life”? We mightn’t want to march in the streets, but our liturgy reminds us today that Jesus did, and in the most provocative manner.

Jesus was making an unmistakable claim; that he is the Messiah that the Old Testament speaks of: Rejoice greatly, Daughter Zion! Shout, Daughter Jerusalem! See, your king comes to you, righteous and victorious, lowly and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. (Zechariah 9:9).

Like many provocateurs, it doesn’t end well – or does it? We will have to wait until next week to find out, but for now, the liturgy of the Church invites us “to follow him in his footsteps”. This isn’t just a spiritual notion, nor it is just an invitation for this week. It means working with God to promote peace, and to build the Reign of God by being people of justice and Christian virtue here and now.

Jesus was carried into Jerusalem on a donkey. We are not asked to be thoroughbreds or spritely stallions – if a donkey can carry Jesus through the streets, why can’t we? With our own lively faith and devotion, we carry Jesus, the true King of this world, as a sign of God’s triumphant Reign.

Videte, omnes populi, si est

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 330

O sacred head surrounded by crown of piercing thorn.
O bleeding head, so wounded, reviled and put to scorn.
The pow'r of death comes o'er you, the glow of life decays, yet angel hosts adore you, and tremble as they gaze.

In this your bitter passion, Good Shepherd, think of me with your most sweet compassion, unworthy though I be:
beneath your cross abiding for ever would I rest,
in your dear love confiding, and with your presence blest.

Christ Jesus, we adore you, our thorn-crowned Lord and King.
We bow our heads before you, and to your cross we cling.
Lord, give us strength to bear it with patience and with love,
that we may truly merit a glorious crown above.
