

FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

YEAR B – 21 APRIL 2024

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Acts 4:8-12; 1 John 3:1-2; John 10:11-18

Dear friends,

We are at the mid-point of the Easter season. Even so, Easter is never far away from Good Friday (just as Good Friday is never from Easter), as we have been reminded during this past week.

On Saturday, Bondi Junction in Sydney was the focus of the latest act of random and inexplicable violence. Our society is, once again, forced to confront our collective approach to homelessness, mental health and violence against women. The truth of the matter is that people with mental illness are more likely to be victims of violence rather than perpetrators. We cannot pretend that there are easy or quick solutions to any of these issues but we know these realities affect families, communities, and society as a whole. They remind us that this is a constant, long and difficult conversation in search of some collective remedies. We must not despair because every Good Friday has an Easter; every Easter is the result of Good Fridays. This is the hope that the Christian community can offer.

The Christian community itself became the focus of further violence on Monday. Mar Mari Emmanuel, an Assyrian Orthodox Christian bishop of Christ the Good Shepherd Church in Sydney, was stabbed along with his assistant priest, Fr Isaac Royel, after which a riot ensued, injuring police attempting to protect the community. It goes without saying that Christian communities need to be witnesses to peacemaking in a world prone to violence.

And on Thursday at the Cathedral we farewelled one of our own: Fr Marty Larsen. Marty was only 48 years old and died unexpectedly. Sudden death always exposes many things, but what has been the common refrain in this past week is the good nature, humour and enthusiasm with which Marty lived and ministered. He was a good man whose legacy has touched the hearts and spirits of so many. Today we turn to the Good Shepherd, the Risen One, Jesus Christ, who knows Good Friday, and more importantly, reveals Easter Sunday. Fr. Anthony

Blessing for those who have celebrated Baptisms, Confirmations and First Communions at the Cathedral

This Sunday had been set aside to acknowledge those who have celebrated Baptisms, Confirmations and First Communions at the Cathedral as part of our 150th celebrations but then the Army Run intervened. However, if you have managed to jump over the barricades, we will have a blessing after Communion at the 10am Mass. We welcome those who have made the effort to return and we acknowledge that the Cathedral has been the home of many who have begun their Christian journey at St Stephen's.

ENTRANCE SONG

Psalm 24

At the conclusion of the Introit the assembly responds as the Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the final verse.

The mercy of the Lord
Replenishes the world.
The heavens above were fashioned by
The Lord's almighty word.

You upright in the Lord,
Rejoice, let praises ring,
Give thanks to Yahweh with the lyre,
Make melody and sing.

Compose a song to God,
Play strings with great finesse.
His word is honest, and he works
His deeds in uprightness.

Give glory to our God,
The Father, and the Son,
And also to the Paraclete,
Eternal Three-in-One.

And none you have chosen will finally fall.

Good shepherd, you warn us of robbers and thieves,
the hireling, the wolf who destroys and deceives.
All praise for your promise on which we shall stand,
that no one can snatch us away from your hand.

Good Shepherd, you lay down your life for the sheep.
Your love is not fickle, your gift is not cheap.
You spend your life freely, and you take it again.
You died, so we live; we are healed by your pain.

At one with the Fathers, you made yourself known:
"I am the Good Shepherd," at one with your own.
You loved us before we had heeded or heard;
by grace we respond to your life-giving word.
