

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

YEAR B – 26 MAY 2024

The community of the Cathedral of St Stephen acknowledges the traditional custodians of the land on which our parish stands.

The Cathedral Parish has zero tolerance for all forms of abuse and is committed to safeguarding everyone involved in its activities, ministries and services. The safety and wellbeing of children and adults-at-risk is paramount.

Readings for today: Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40; Romans 8:14-17; Matthew 28:16-29

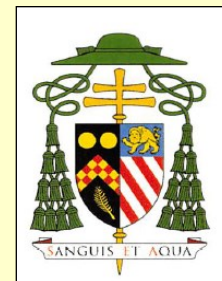

Dear friends,

After a week of festivities in the Cathedral, the liturgical calendar directs our attention to something more than time and stone. On Trinity Sunday, the liturgy draws us into the heart of the matter and reminds us why we are so keen on building houses or communities. Buildings are not just for shelter and communities are not just for security. We develop structures that bind us because we are made in the image and likeness of God. And God is no self-contained entity. God is one continuous outpouring of love, firstly from the Father to the Son by the bridge of the Spirit that unites them. And not content with looking into the eyes of each other, they pour their love out into Creation itself, so that everything and everyone might know the desire to be joined and united with something beyond ourselves. So that is why we build families, communities, and societies. It is why we explore and are curious. It is why we are creative and sing and play and dream. It is why we lament the tragedies and disasters of this world. It is why we seek justice and the renewal of the human family and the planet itself. God has made us to reach outwards because God's very nature is to reach outwards. That is what the Trinity means. It is not a theological formula but helps us understand who we are and why we are. The secular calendar also asks us to take a look closer to home. Today is Sorry Day in which we lament, in that great scriptural tradition, the wrongs of the past and seek to understand the ways in which we are beneficiaries of the injustices committed by others. Some one once said to me something along these lines, "I became wealthy because I stayed silent. I saw the culture of corruption but remained on the fringes of it all. I fed my family, and then saw that I could set them up for life. I chose to be carried by the river of false gold. I am rich but still feel so poor". Sorry Day prompts us towards a similar realisation. Our nation cannot be wealthy while its original people are left behind. While this inequity remains, we might consider ourselves comfortable and grateful for our opportunities, but in truth, we all remain "so poor".

Scriptural lamentation is the opposite to silence; it is the sound of tears for all the injustices of life. Sorry Day and Trinity Sunday go hand-in-hand; both are about the pouring out into creation the healing hands of love that bind the wounds of the broken-hearted and make us all one in the image and likeness of God. Fr. Anthony

Fr Jim Smith

It is with sadness that we advise of the sudden death of Fr Jim Smith who died on Thursday morning at his home in Alderley. Fr Jim served in the parishes of Grovely, Booval and Cannon Hill as well as ministering as Hospital Chaplain at the Royal Brisbane Hospital. He would be best remembered however, for his dedicated service and leadership with the Catholic Psychiatric Pastoral Care ministry for many years and since his retirement he has been Supplying for Mass here in the Cathedral Parish. May he rest in peace and experience the eternal presence of Christ he has both loved and served.

We pray for his family and friends as we remember Jim at this time of sadness.

Funeral details will be announced in the coming days.

Holy God, we praise thy name,
Lord of all, we bow before thee;
all on earth thy sceptre claim,
all in heav'n above adore thee;

Hark! The loud celestial hymn
angel choirs above are raising;
cherubim and seraphim
in unceasing chorus praising
fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord!

Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, three we name thee
while in essence only one,
Undivided God we claim thee,
and adoring bend the knee,
while we own the mystery.

Cherubic Hymn

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! Early in the morning our song shall rise to Thee; Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

Holy, holy, holy! All the saints adore Thee,
Casting down their golden crowns around the glassy sea,
Cherubim and seraphim falling down before Thee,
Who wert and art, and evermore shalt be.

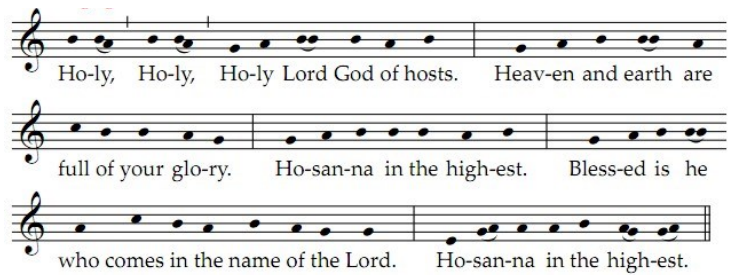

Holy, holy, holy! Though the darkness hide Thee,
Though the eye of sinful man Thy glory may not see;
Only Thou art holy; there is none beside Thee,
Perfect in power, love, and purity.

Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name in earth and sky and sea; Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty! God in three Persons, blessed Trinity!

in caelo et in terra, alleluia:
euntes, docete omnes gentes,
baptizantes eos in nomine
Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus
Sancti, alleluia, alleluia.

COMMUNION HYMN

CWB 486

Firmly I believe and truly
God is three and God is one;
and I next acknowledge duly
manhood taken by the Son.
And I trust and hope most fully
in that manhood crucified;
and each thought and deed unruly
do to death, as he has died.
Simply to his grace and wholly
light and life and strength belong;
and I love supremely, solely,
him the holy, him the strong.

And I hold in veneration,
for the love of him alone,
holy Church as his creation,
and her teachings as his own.

Praise and thanks be ever given,
with and through The angelic host,
to the God of earth and heaven,
Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Recessional Hymn Now thank we all our God
(CWBII 561)

Now thank we all our God with hearts and hands and voices
who wondrous things have done, in whom the world rejoices;
who from our mother's arms has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us,
with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us.
Lord keep us in your grace, and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God, who reigns in highest heaven,
to Father and to Son, and Spirit now be given:
the one eternal God, whom heaven and earth adore,
who ever was, is now, and shall be evermore.
