All And with your spirit.

and to whom all glory belongs,
hear our prayers for your servant Queen Elizabeth,

Who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Isaiah 25:6-9

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of finest food.
On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples and the shroud enwrapping all nations.
He will destroy death for ever.
The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
On that day it will be said:
This is our God in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice, for he has saved us.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

1. The Lord is my light and my help, whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life, before whom shall I shrink?
2. There is one thing I ask of the Lord, for this I long,
to live in the house of the Lord, all the days of my life,
to savour the sweetness of the Lord, to behold his temple.
3. O Lord, hear my voice when I call: have mercy and answer.
Of you my heart has spoken: "Seek his face."
It is your face, O Lord, that I seek.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:20-25

A reading from the First Letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Jesus Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep.
Death came through one person,
and in the same way life has come through one person.
Just as all people die in Adam, so all people will be brought to life in Christ – Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him.
After that will come the end,
when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father.
For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet, and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (ALL SING)

Matthew 25:34

v. Come, you whom my Father has blessed, says the Lord;
inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world.

GOSPEL

John 20:11-18

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Mary Magdalene stayed outside near the tomb, weeping.
Then, still weeping, she stooped to look inside and saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head, the other at the feet.

They said, “Woman, why are you weeping?”
“They have taken my Lord away”, she replied,
“and I don’t know where they have put him”.
As she said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, though she did not recognise him.

Jesus said, “Woman, why are you weeping?
Who are you looking for?”
Supposing him to be the gardener, she said,
“Sir, if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him,
and I will go and remove him”.

Jesus said to her, “Mary!”
She knew him then and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbuni!” which means Master.

Jesus said to her, "Do not cling to me,
because I have not yet ascended to the Father.
But go and find the brothers and sisters and tell them:
I am ascending to my Father and your Father,
to my God and your God".

So Mary went and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord and that he had said these things to her.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

COMMUNION MOTET

The Choir sings And I Saw a New Heaven

– Edgar L. Bainton (1880-1956)

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth;

For the first heaven and first earth had passed away,

And there was no more sea.

And I John saw the holy city,

New Jerusalem coming down from God out of heaven,

Prepared as a bride adorned for her husband;

And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying:

'Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men,

And he will dwell with them and they shall be his people;

And God himself shall be with them and be their God;

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes,

And there shall be no more death neither sorrow nor crying,

Neither shall there be any more pain,

For the former things are passed away.'

[Revelations 21:1-4]

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me; and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house forever more
My dwelling place shall be.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Archbishop Let us pray.

Grant, we pray, O Lord,
that your servant Queen Elizabeth
for whom we have celebrated these Easter mysteries, may enter a dwelling place of light and peace
to be with you for ever.
Through Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.
