EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Year C

Weekend of March 02/03, 2019

A word to the entire community of the Archdiocese of Brisbane

These last few weeks have been bruising for the Catholic Church in Australia. It seems that everywhere we turn we see stories about the Church and its failures with child sexual abuse.

We have to accept that. The Church will never walk away from its responsibilities in this area. We have much to atone for. We have much to do and much to continue learning.

But today I want to say a word about the Church that's almost never mentioned in mainstream media. It's the Church that you're part of every day and, often enough, through the night as well. Because of what you do, the Church changes lives for the better, and it does so through the power of the Gospel. Yes, we face serious challenges now, but there is a whole dimension of the Church that should never be forgotten.

It's the Church that works every day with refugees who have come to Australia seeking a better life. You help them to find accommodation, to fight for a permanent stay and to reunite with loved ones.

It's the Church that works on the frontline with domestic violence victims. You help them and their children in the toughest moments that they will face. You walk with them at every step, especially when they feel helpless.

It's the Church that works with Australians with a disability. You help create a society that welcomes, includes and respects people with a disability as people first – and you support them to follow their dreams.

It's the Church that works with people on the poverty line. You provide them with accommodation, meals and support when they have nowhere else to turn.

It's the Church that works with the homeless. You bring a friendly smile, food and warmth to them. Most of all, you help by spending time with them.

It's the Church that works with people living with dementia. You brighten their lives, you relate to the real person and you provide support for their families.

It's the Church that provides pastoral support to prisoners. You sit with them, listen to their stories and provide counselling.

It's the Church that works to protect our environment. You help raise awareness of our common home, the earth on which we live and the need to preserve it for those who come after us.

Of course, it's the Church that has educated millions of Australian children over generations. Your work in that area continues to have a major impact on our young people and the future of our country.

And it's the Church that has provided first-class medical treatment in our hospitals for generations. You have literally saved lives and continue to save lives. You have also accompanied the dying with tender care.

Thank you for all this and more – because that's not an exhaustive list of what you do from day to day in the Catholic Church.

At this time, I wanted you to know that your work is priceless and that it does not go unrecognised.

Thank you for your work in parishes, schools, hospitals and on the frontline wherever it may be.

It's work that should make you both proud and humble – proud for what has been achieved and humble before the God whose gifts make it all possible and who is as close to us now as ever before.

Please join us under the cover of the veranda at Mercy House.

ENTRANCE SONG

Ps 17:19, 20

At the sound of the bell, the Cathedral Choir processes from the Sacristy singing the Introit. The assembly responds as the Choir and Ministers process towards the altar with the following translation of the Introit text. The first verse (which is the Antiphon) is repeated after the third verse.

The Lord has be - come my pro - tec - tor and aid;
 He brought me from dark - ness to wide o - pen space.
 He saved me be - cause he de - light - ed in me,
 Re - ward - ed me, for I o - beyed his de - cree.

2. I love you, O Lord, my salvation, my friend,
 My rock, and my refuge who saves and defends,
 My God, who protects me when I was in need,
 My shield and the horn of salvation indeed

3 So let us adore God the Father and sing
 Our praise to the Son, who is Saviour and King.
 All praise to the Spirit, who loves and remains,
 And was from the first and will be for all days.

OFFERTORY MOTET, 12pm Mass

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, Thou are very great; Thou art clothed with honour and majesty. Who coverest Thyself with light, as with a garment: who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain: Who layeth the beams of His chamber in the waters: who maketh the clouds His chariot: who walketh upon the wings of the wind: Who maketh his angels spirits, His ministers a flaming fire: He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among the hills. They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses quench their thirst. By them shall the fowls of heaven have their habitations, which sing among the branches. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man: that he may bring forth food out of the earth; and wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

Psalm 104

Cecil Armstrong Gibbs (1889-1960)

COMMUNION MOTET, 12pm Mass

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum; Dat panis coelicus figuris terminum: O res mirabilis! Manducat Dominum pauper, servus et humilis.
Te trina Deitas unaque poscimus: Sic nos tu visita, sicut te colimus; Per tuas semitas duc nos quo tendimus, Ad lucem quam inhabitas. Amen.

Thus Angels' Bread is made the Bread of man today: the Living Bread from heaven with figures dost away: O wondrous gift indeed! the poor and lowly may upon their Lord and Master feed.
Thee, therefore, we implore, o Godhead, One in Three, so may Thou visit us as we now worship Thee; and lead us on Thy way, That we at last may see the light wherein Thou dwellest aye. Amen.

St Thomas Aquinas

Francois Verhelst (1853-1934)
